SUBJECT. Permission to appear for special test examinations.

From P. D. B. Ramnady, Dis No. 39, dated the 13th January 1916.

Register No. 172.

The permission applied for may perhaps be granted. For precedents, please see G.O.s. No. 1056 Edl, dated the 24th Sept. 1915 and No. 1229 Edl, dated the 15th Novr. 1915. The remarks of the L.M. Dep't. may be obtained, before passing orders.

The object of these restrictions on permission to appear seems to be to secure indirectly ~~some~~ a certain degree of general education in the holder of certain classes of posts. I think this can be carried too far. We may well bar all but P.A.s from rising over Rs 100 and all but N.A.s from rising above Rs 250.

but I don't see why we should stop a man who is in God's service and who has so far covered the defects of his early training as to be able to pass these special tests from appearing for them and saying, say, to No. 70. I am therefore disposed to be liberal in granting permission to appear. Will you all agree in the case?

in all this is decided.

Personally, I think in a strict enforcement of educational rules and not use my position in District

So far as this Dept is concerned no papers are traceable.

2. In G.O. 571, 30th Oct 1895, the Govt agreed with Dr Duncan in considering that it was inexpedient to admit to any special test examination a person whose general educational qualification fell below the standard required in the appointments for which that special test was prescribed It was ^{apparently} ~~however~~ then contemplated that in individual cases where proved merit might be regarded as making up for the want of any general test qualification or where special reasons might seem to require it, the rule could be relaxed on the recommendation of the Head of the Dept. to which the candidate belonged. Accordingly permissions to appear for special tests have been ~~sanctioned~~ granted in special cases and refused in others.

For cases in which such permissions were granted, please see Nos 512 E & 269 E recent cases, please see Nos 831 E & 2.8.15, 1056 E & 24.8.15, 1228 E & 15.11.15
