The humble memorialist of your Excellency's most obedient servant, N. Govindasami Nayudu, the permanent 4th clerk of the District Munsif's court of Vriddachalam, now acting as the 7th clerk of the District Munsif's court of Kallakurichi, South Arcot, most respectfully sheweth:--

The humble memorialist was first entertained as a process server in the District Court of South Arcot in the year 1893 and was promoted in 1900 to an amin's post in the District Munsif's court, Tirukkoyilur. Since the year 1900 Your Excellency's humble servant has been trained in the several branches of clerical work of a District Munsif's court, by the then superiors, who in appreciation of his quickness and efficiency, were pleased to steadily promote him through the several grades of the amin's post, till at last he was made a clerk in the year 1909, although many passed candidates were then available for filling up the post. The humble memorialist is now acting as the 7th clerk of District Munsif's court, Kallakurichi on Rs.20/- with his permanent lien as the 4th clerk of the District Munsif's court Vriddhachalam on Rs.20/-.

It is respectfully submitted that the memorialist is an unpassed candidate and is not entitled to a pay of more than Rs.20/- per mensem under the present educational rules unless Your Excellency is pleased to exempt him from the operation of the same.

The memorialist submits that he has passed the old Middle School Examination held in December 1890 and in the second class that he has studied up to the Matriculation class of the then prevailing curriculum and that he is proud to assure Your Excellency that by virtue of his training mostly under efficient superiors whom it was his special fortune to serve, he can bid fair to turn out official work ~~xxxx~~ equal if not superior to that of a passed candidate under the Educational rules. The memorialist belongs to a respectable sub-caste of the Sudra Caste (Padma Vilama) and has a large family with an old mother as its head to support.

The memorialist begs leave, for the above reasons once more to crave Your Excellency for re-consideration of the orders passed on the memorialist's application in the High Court's order Dis.No.987 dated 22-5-1916 and humbly prays that Your Excellency would be pleased to exempt your humble servant from the said Educational rules,-----as Your Excellency has most graciously dealt with some of the judicial department belonging to this district who are mostly his juniors,-----so as to entitle Your Excellency's humble memorialist to a pay of Rs.30/- as his maximum so that he may have the fortune of drawing at least a pension of Rs.15 in his last days especially as he has put up an unbroken and unblemished service of over 23 years of his life under this Benign and Gracious Government.

A copy of the proceedings of the High Court of Judicature Madras referred to supra, is herewith submitted for kind perusal.
