Received 1916 Registered 12-10-1916

Abstract.

Mr. C. A. Innes, I.C.S.

Placing ----- on special duty in the Department of Industries.

(Original of this is at file I.)

Public DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No. 1684, dated the 11th October 1916.

No.

G.O.No.403 Educational, dated the 8th April 1916.
G.O.No.720 Public, dated the 12th April 1916.
G.O.No.1640 Public, dated the 29th September 1916.

ORDER:-

Mr. C.A.Innes, I.C.S., on return from leave, is placed on the special duty referred to in G.O.No.403 Educational, dated the 8th April 1916.

2. During the period of his special duty Mr.Innes will draw the pay and allowances (including tentage) admissible to him in the regular line plus a deputation(duty) allowance of Rs.10/- per diem under article 81 of the Civil Service Regulations.

3. The Accountant-General is requested to recover from Mr.Innes a sum of Rs.21/- towards the cost of a telegram despatched to him to Port Said.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

A draft Memo. to H.M. regarding Mr. Innes' deputation to the Department of Industries is submitted.

2. The six months' period of the deputation sanctioned in G.O.No.403 Edl., dated 8-4-16, expires on 22-11-16. Presumably it is the intention to extend this period. If so, Home (Edl.) will have to issue orders to that effect, stating also that the deputation (duty) allowance will be regulated under Art. 81 of C.S.R., without specifying the amount. Mr. Innes will then as a matter of course get Rs.10 per diem, his salary in the regular line being that of a 1st grade sub Collector acting as 2nd grade Collector i.e. ~~Rx1900~~ Rs.1900.

3. A draft telegram to Mr. Innes is also put up which may issue after the Memo is approved by H.M. Under the last sentence of para. 68 of the I.C.S.Manual the cost of the telegram if sent out of India, will have to be recovered from Mr. Innes. As however, Mr. Innes asks for intimation either at Colombo or at Port Said, it is for orders whether, instead of a telegram, a D.O. may not be sent to him at Colombo. A.H.M. 6-10-16. He particularly asked for information at Port Said. A telegram should therefore go.

As pointed out ^{above} in the previous page, the period of special duty sanctioned in G.O.No.403, Educational, dated 8-4-16, expires on the 22nd November next. The Govt. of India have recently been addressed in Revenue in regard to the creation of a new post of Director of Industries and Fisheries and it will be sometime before the Secretary of State's orders on the proposal are received. It is for consideration whether the special duty may be extended by another period of six months or till the receipt of the Secretary of State's orders whichever is earlier.

2. Mr. Couchman is in receipt of a deputation allowance of Rs.250 per mensem. Public suggests that Mr. Innes should be allowed to draw the deputation allowance admissible under article 81 of the C.S.R. i.e. Rs.300 per mensem. The proposal may be approved.

3. Since May last the position in the Department of Industries has somewhat changed. Mr. Tresler has since left for Military duty and the post of Director of Industries, is now vacant. The officer on special duty now virtually performs the duties of the Director. Article 77 of the C.S.R. contemplates the deputation of an officer only for duty for the performance of which there is no permanently or temporarily sanctioned appointment. It is not known whether the A.G. will raise objection to the proposed extension of the period of deputation under the provisions of this article, but, in case he does, the special sanction of the Govt. of India may be obtained later on if necessary.

Financial Department.

As special officer in the Department of Industries, Mr. Couchman was granted an allowance of Rs. 250 per month only in addition to his salary in the regular line - G.O. 403 Eds, 8.4.16. S and G.O. 777 Eds, 15.7.16. In connection with the proposals for the creation of a post of Director of Industries and Fisheries to be held by an I. C. S. officer it has been suggested to the Government of India that a remunerative local allowance of Rs 150 p.m. only need be paid to the incumbent of the post in addition to his salary in the regular line. In G.O. 1684 Public, 21.10.16 a deputation (duty) allowance of Rs 300 p.m. has been sanctioned to Mr. Innes, I.C.S., but this rate has apparently been fixed as a special case - cf. para 2 of H. E. The Governor's note, 29.3.16 on p. 17 of G.O. 403 Educ, 2.4.16.

2. The draft order in the present case may, it is submitted, be accepted in Financial.

3. Provision of funds. The extra cost involved in the proposed extension of deputation is roughly Rs 15,000 of which about Rs 11,000 will fall due in 1916-17. On receipt of a copy of Encl. Dept. proceedings an additional allotment of this amount may be (under the head 26-Bm. Scientific Depts Miscellaneous) sanctioned from the reserve at the
