From (Name) C.B.N. Pelly, Esq., B.A.

(Designation) Ag. Chief Presidency Magistrate.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Judicial Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for the favourable consideration of Government the following case on behalf of K. Ramachandra Ayyar, Typist of this office.

2. K. Ramachandra Ayyar has been employed as Typist in this court and has put in a total permanent service of about 7½ years, exclusive of temporary service of about a year, in this Court.

3. He has passed the following subjects of the Government Technical Examinations:--

1. Type-writing --Elementary--First Class--First in the Presidency.

2. Type-writing --Intermediate.

3. Book-Keeping -- Elementary-----First Class.
 4. Commercial Correspondence.
 5. Commercial Geography.
 6. Banking.
- Elementary.

and 7. He has also successfully gone through the Intermediate Examination in Type-writing of the London Chamber of Commerce, in the First Class.

4. He is working under me as Typist and Telephone Clerk and I have had occasions and opportunities to note his character, conduct and ability and I am glad to certify that his character is exemplary, conduct uniformly good, and ability more than the average. My predecessors, under whom he has worked, have, I also understand, entertained a high opinion of his intelligence, conduct and capacity. He has done clerical work now and then and is well acquainted with this office routine. It is unfortunate that this applicant has not qualified himself, under the rules now in force, by passing the Matriculation Examination for being appointed as clerk; but, I consider, however, that having regard to the merits of the applicant, this disqualification of his not being a Matriculate should not be a bar to his absorption in the clerical ranks of this office as I am of opinion that his services as clerk would be more useful to this office than as Typist.

5. Government in their order No. 2444--Judicial--dated the 7th October 1915 have sanctioned the creation of two Assistant Cashiers' posts on Rs.40/- each (with cash security Rs.300) in connection with the two additional Honorary Presidency Magistrates' Courts to be opened shortly. On the strength of the opinion I have expressed in the foregoing paragraph, I propose to appoint the applicant K. Ramachandra Ayyar, now getting a salary of Rs.33, to one of the two Assistant Cashiers' posts on Rs.40/-, as I consider that so far as cash work is concerned honesty and reliability with capability are of greater importance than the General Educational qualifications prescribed for such posts. If Government will be disposed to accept this view of mine, I would strongly recommend that the applicant may be permanently exempted from the operation of the examination rules for holding the posts of clerks up to Rs.50/- only in this office as the Cashier's pay in these courts is now fixed at Rs.50/- and as it is the Assistant Cashiers that have to perform the duties of Cashiers in short and leave vacancies. The maximum pay that this applicant may hope to get, if exempted, will be only Rs.50/- at the highest and I think that this will not be much for a full service of 25 or 30 years. An application for exemption in the prescribed form is herewith submitted.

6. Public service will not suffer, I think, by encouraging such deserving cases and Government are approached with such requests only in very exceptional and deserving cases. I also understand that similar favours have been shown in the cases of certain men employed in the High Court, Revenue Secretariat etc.

7. In these circumstances, I request that Government will be pleased to take a favourable view of the case and grant the applicant permanent exemption from the examination rules as laid down in the Public Service Notification so that he may become eligible for holding the posts of clerks up to Rs.50/- only, in the Presidency Magistrates' Courts, Madras.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

can Billy

Exemption from examination rules.

ct 1824B From the Hq. Cl. Pres. ⁹ Mafu. Ref. on No. 41/80.1/2/14

U.S.

The Chief Presidency Magistrate makes a strong recommendation on behalf of Mr. Ramchandraray, a typist in his office for exemption from examination rules ^{in order to make him eligible} for holding a clerical post on pay up to Rs 50 per m. The Commending is partly on personal ground and partly on Public Ground. The typist is promoted up to Rs 50 if he passes the case see the notes in S.O.

1067 ¹ 27.9.15 for a similar case.

For orders whether the recommendation will be supported in this deptt.

29.1.16. The ground for treating this case as exceptional are not very strong; and every exemption is likely to be regarded as a precedent for further applications. Ramchandraray's prospects are by no means bad for a man of his small qualifications.
