Sir,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the employment for a period of one year, with effect from the 1st proximo, of a fourth temporary teacher on Rs.25/- per mensem, in the Government Girls' School, Tiruvannamalai.

M-1-2 980900 (J) 2. In my letter R.C.No.6225 of 1916 dated 12th August 1916 read in G.O.No.900 Educational dated 23rd August last, the retention of the three temporary assistants employed in the school was recommended on the ground that the total number of pupils on the rolls viz, 295 and the average attendance warranted such retention. Since then there has been an accession to the strength of the school especially in some of the higher standards as will be observed from the particulars furnished on the margin and the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle, reports that the present staff of nine teachers for whom details are given on the margin, finds ~~it~~ it very difficult to carry on the work of the school, containing eight standards and 310 pupils. She therefore suggests the desirability of strengthening the staff by the appointment of at least two additional teachers. As regards the rates of pay of the extra teachers, Miss Lynch suggests Rs.25/- and Rs.20/- for the reason that the school at Tiruvannamalai which is an orthodox Hindu place is an important one, that it is essential that the school should be staffed by respectable Hindu female teachers and that it is hopeless to secure such teachers for any less pay than the rates proposed by her. While the increase in the strength of the school ^{two} points to the need for more teachers with reference to Rule 81 of the Madras Educational -- Rules, I consider that until the average daily attendance which has been fluctuating from 197 to 221 shews decided improvement, one additional teacher will suffice. I accordingly beg to recommend the employment of an additional temporary teacher on Rs.25/- per mensem to facilitate the employment of a suitable Hindu mistress for the charge of the IV and V standards.

3. The extra expenditure of Rs.100/- can be met from the savings likely to accrue in the current year's provision for salaries under Government Girls' Schools. I further beg to request that provision for the charge may be entered in the Civil Budget Estimate for the ensuing year now under the consideration of Government.
