Please see the notes and orders in G.O. No. 735, Educational, dated the 4th July 1916. In paragraph 2 of the order, the Government accepted the suggestion of the Government of India to adopt the practice prevailing in the Punjab, of furnishing each student proceeding to England with a copy of the Provincial pamphlet along with the certificate of identity and requested the Madras Students' Advisory Committee to take the necessary action in the matter. The committee now reports that no Provincial pamphlet is in existence and suggests that the object aimed at would be attained if district officers granting certificates of identity were instructed by the Government to advise the applicants to purchase a copy of the handbook of information prepared in England and to communicate with the Secretary to the Students' Advisory Committee.

This department is already aware that there are no special pamphlets issued in Madras, but it was thought that the practice prevailing in the Punjab, referred to above, might also be adopted in this Presidency and hence the Students' Advisory Committee was requested to take the necessary action in the matter. There seems to be, however, no objection to the adoption of the course now suggested by the committee. Subject to orders a draft order is submitted for approval which, if approved, may issue with the concurrence of Home (Miscellaneous) section.
