2. Mr. T.S. Narayana's academic distinctions certainly qualify him for a post in the Indian Educational Service; but he has had no teaching experience. Should there be an acting vacancy for a Professor of Mathematics, I should be not indisposed to try him, but I should not recommend his permanent appointment until he had had an opportunity in an acting vacancy in the Department or in an aided college, of showing what he is good for.

I have seen him and received a fairly favourable impression of his personality. On the whole I consider him more suited for the Provincial than the Indian Educational Service.

Ellore,

25-10-1916.

My dear Rajagopalachariar,

Please allow me to introduce to you Mr. Narayana who is one of the wranglers of this year. He has passed the mathematical tripos examination at Cambridge with distinction having obtained special distinction in schedule B subjects. He wishes to enter the Indian educational service and has seen Sir Sankaran Nair. He told him that his name would be circulated to the local Governments. May I request you to take some interest in his case and do all that you can to help him. I should think that in the case of persons with Mr. Narayana's qualifications there should be no difficulty.

yours sincerely,

Rameshchandra Rao

Sir,

With reference to Mr. Anderson's letter No.937, dated the 16th October 1916, forwarding an application from Mr.T.S.Narayana for an appointment in the Indian Educational Service, I am directed to state that, though Mr.Narayana's academic distinctions appear to qualify him for a post in the Indian Educational Service, yet as he has had no teaching experience, the Governor in Council is not disposed to recommend him for a permanent appointment in that service, but would prefer ^{first} to try him in acting appointments. The general impression left on the mind of the Director of Public Instruction by Mr. Narayana inclines that officer to regard him as on the whole more suited for the Provincial than for the Indian Educational Service.
