GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

HOME DEPARTMENT

(Education)

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.
Dated—Senate House, the 9th November 1916.
No.—8683.

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to submit for the sanction of the Government, under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the following alteration to revised Regulation 207 relating to the B.A. (Honours) Degree Examination in Branch V—History, Economics and Politics sanctioned by the Government in G.O. No. 867, Home (Education), dated 12th August 1916 :—

That “Economics—a special subject” be added as a sixth optional under (B).

This alteration was recommended to the Syndicate by the Board of Studies in History and Economics and was accepted by the Senate at its adjourned meeting held on the 28th October 1916. As a consequential amendment, the time-table for that examination in Regulation 208 will require the addition “Sixth day, 10—1, Economics—Special subject, 200” to which sanction is also requested.

I have further to request the approval of the Government to a further resolution of the Senate that the revised Regulations relating to the B.A. (Honours) Degree Examination, in Branch V, above referred to, come into force as from the examination of 1920 and not of 1919 as previously intended, in view of the fact that these Regulations did not receive the sanction of the Government until some weeks after the academic year 1916–17 had actually commenced in the affiliated colleges.

Order—No. 1274, Home (Education), dated 29th November 1916.

Under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the Government sanction the alterations in the University Regulations 207 and 208 (revised) relating to the B.A. Honours Degree Examination in Branch V proposed in the Registrar's letter read above.

2. The Government also approve the proposal that the revised Regulations relating to the B.A. History “Honours” course sanctioned in G.O. No. 867, Home (Education), dated the 12th August 1916, and as now modified, shall come into force as from the examination of 1920.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 1274, HOME (EDUCATION),
DATED THE 29TH NOVEMBER 1916.

[SUBJECT.—Alterations in the University Regulations relating to the B.A. History (Honours) course.]

From the Registrar, University of Madras, No. 8683, dated the 9th November 1916.

HOME (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

Attention is solicited to the notes and orders with G.O. No. 867, Home (Education), dated the 12th August 1916, in which the Government approved certain alterations in the Regulations relating to the B.A. History (Honours) course.

2. The changes now proposed provide—

(a) that “Economics—a special subject” be added as a sixth optional under (B) in Regulation 207 as revised in the above Government Order and that the necessary amendment be made in the time table for that examination in Regulation 208 ;

(b) that the revised Regulations relating to the B.A. History (Honours) course come into effect from the examination of 1920 and not of 1919 as previously intended.

The change in item (a) above is apparently with reference to the compromise arrived at between Dr. Slater and Mr. Allen and concurred in by the Director of Public Instruction—please see pages 7, 9, 10, 11 and 12 of the notes with G.O. No. 867, Home (Education), dated the 12th August 1916. It will, however, be observed that the subject then proposed for addition was Indian Economics and not Economics (in general).

The change in item (b) is according to the Government's wishes in the matter—please see page 14 of the notes with G.O. No. 867, Home (Education), dated the 12th August 1916.

3. Submitted that the Director of Public Instruction may be consulted as to whether the alterations in the Regulations may be approved.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
