For Registrar.

As regards clause (1) of the question on page 2 ante figures have been furnished by the Director of Public Instruction.

2. As regards clause (2) the Director of Public Instruction is not able to furnish the statistics required. The numbers of men and women teachers as they stood on the 31st March 1914 will be found on page 4 of G.O.No.1366, Educational, dated the 3rd December 1914. The figures as regards these on the 31st March 1915 are on pages 3 and 4 of G.O.No.1350, Educational, dated the 8th December 1915. As the Additional Member wants the proportion of men to women teachers at present, it is proposed in the draft answer to inform him that the information is not available.

3. The Additional Member enquires in clause (3) as to how many additional training schools have been opened since the 1st April 1914. The lists of training schools for mistresses as they stood on the 31st March 1914 and the 31st March 1915 will be found on pages 8-9 of Volume II of the Report on Public Instruction for 1913-14 and 1914-15. The list on the 31st March 1916 is on pages 43-44 of the proof report put up below. It is seen from the lists that there has been only one addition to the list, viz., the Masulipatam C.M.S. Training School in the Kistna district, which was opened during 1914-15. The Additional Member may be informed of this addition.

4. As regards clause (4) proposals are awaited from the Director of Public Instruction.

5. The following draft answer is submitted for approval:---

(1) "The number opened since the 1st April

"1914 and up to the 31st March 1916 was 34

" (2) The information is not in the possession

"of the Government.

" (3) One.

" (4) It has not been found possible to

"arrange for opening any training schools

"for mistresses during the current year. As "regards the ensuing year the Government await

"the proposals of the Director of Public

"Instruction."
