Home (Education) Department

For the Registrar.

Attention is solicited to paragraph 2 of India's letter No.1827, dated the 15th June 1915, in which that Government decided, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, that as a matter of general policy it was not proper that Local Governments should continue during the war to subsidise institutions directed by members of nations with whom hostilities were in progress and that such grants should cease. This prohibition was made applicable also to subsidies given from public funds administered by local boards and municipal councils.

2. Accordingly in G.O.No.686, Educational, meantime expressed its willingness to undertake management of these schools up to the 31st March 1917, without further financial aid from public funds than the ordinary grants admissible under the Grant-in-Aid Code, the Government accepted the Council's offer and directed that recognition and aid be continued to the schools up to that date. The Government also accepted the constitution of committees for the management of the schools.

(e) The matter is under consideration.

7. In clause (b) of the question the Additional Member asks for statistics as regards the grants paid to the institutions since the outbreak of war. This information is not available in this department. For orders whether, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor, the Director of Public Instruction may be asked u.o. to furnish the statistics required.

aid from public funds than what the schools were eligible for under the ordinary rules governing grant-in-aid, the Government accepted the offer and directed that, in modification of the previous orders on the subject, recognition and aid be continued to the schools up to the 31st March 1917. Further, the Government approved the constitution of ~~the~~ committees for the management of these institutions (the personnel having been accepted by the Government) and they requested the Director of Public Instruction to report not later than the 31st January 1917 what arrangements would be necessary for the management of the schools after the 31st March 1917.--vide G.O. No. 253, Educational, dated the 8th March 1916. It may be noted that the hostile mission schools in Malabar and South Canara are mostly Basel Mission schools - vide page 7 of the G.O.

5. In this connection attention is solicited to paragraph 6 of letter to the Government of India, No. 1295, Public, dated the 7th July 1916, on the subject of treatment after the war of hostile foreign missions, in which this Government stated that in the case of properties used for Attention is also solicited to His Excellency's remarks on page 10 of the notes to that letter.

6. The following draft answer is suggested:--

(a), (c) and (d). The Government considered it undesirable that grants should be paid during the war to educational institutions conducted or controlled by hostile missions (including the German Mission schools in Malabar and South Canara) and they accordingly directed the discontinuance of aid to such institutions and the withdrawal of recognition from them from the 31st March 1916 unless they were transferred in the meanwhile to Government or Local Boards management. The Missionary Educational Council of Southern India having however in the dated the 25th June 1915, this Government directed the Director of Public Instruction to give notice at once in respect of all educational institutions which were conducted or controlled by members of hostile nations, that all grants to them would cease with effect from the 30th September 1915. This order was made applicable to the Basel Mission schools with effect from the 31st October 1915, instead of the 30th September 1915 as in the case of other institutions - vide G.O.No.946, Educational, dated the 30th August 1915.

3. Subsequently in G.O.No.1461, Educational, dated the 24th December 1915, the Director of Public Instruction was requested to give notice that recognition would be withdrawn with effect from the 31st March 1916 from all schools hitherto under the management of the hostile missions unless they were transferred to Government or Local Board management in the meanwhile.

4. The Missionary Educational Council of Southern India having expressed its willingness to undertake management up to the 31st March 1917, of schools hitherto under the management of hostile missions, without any further financial

The final form of Question and Answer is as below

182 Q.—(a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether there has been any effective change in the actual management of the German Mission schools in Malabar and South Canara since the war?

Management of the German Mission schools in Malabar and South Canara.

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state the amounts of grants paid to these institutions since the outbreak of war?

(c) Is it a fact that recognition in respect of these schools was once withdrawn and extended again for one year?

(d) Will the Government be pleased to state why recognition was so withdrawn and again extended for a limited period?

(e) Will the Government be pleased to state whether it is intended to extend the recognition of these schools for a further period of time and whether Government obtained the views of local bodies, public or private, as to whether they will take over these schools or start new ones in their place?

182 A.—(a), (c) & (d) The Government considered it undesirable that grants should be paid during the war to educational institutions conducted or controlled by hostile missions (including the German Mission schools in Malabar and South Canara) and they accordingly directed the discontinuance of aid to such institutions and the withdrawal of recognition from them from the 31st March 1916 unless they were transferred in the meanwhile to Government or Local Boards management. The Missionary Educational Council of Southern India having, however, in the meantime expressed its willingness to undertake management of these schools up to the 31st March 1917 without further financial aid from public funds than the ordinary grants admissible under the Grant-in-Aid Code, the Government accepted the Council's offer and directed that recognition and aid be continued to the schools up to that date. The Government also accepted the constitution of committees for the management of the schools.

(b) The Government are not in possession of the information.
