63. Will the Government be pleased to raise the incomplete training schools in Ganjam into Secondary Training schools at Berhampore and Chisacole ?

Educational Department.

The question of raising the status of the school at Berhampur which is intended for the training of Uriya teachers to the secondary grade was considered in 1914 but was dropped, as there was no likelihood of any suitable number of candidates offering themselves - paragraph 2 of D.P.I.'s

(L) letter on page 2 of G.O.No.825 Edl., dated the 14th July 1914. The school has been raised to the grade of a higher elementary training school for a period

(L) three years - G.O.No.825 Edl., dated the 14th July 1914. In connection with the improvement of Uriya education separately under consideration the Director has ^{however recently} suggested that a secondary training section for Uriyas may be opened in the school.

He has asked the Inspector to formulate a scheme accordingly and the proposals in this regard are awaited.

2. The necessity for raising the lower elementary training school at Chicacole (for Telugus) to the grade of a secondary training institution has not been brought to the notice of the Government till now. The secondary training institution at
