G.O. No. 594, Educational, dated the 29th May 1916, has been placed on the Editors' Table. Briefly the proposals sanctioned therein are:- (1) the abolition of four of the existing twelve elementary schools, (2) the opening of twelve new schools into which only children of hill tribes should be admitted and (3) the establishment of four hill training schools for training students drawn from the children of hill men. As it was not found possible to provide additional funds to meet the cost of the scheme, the Agent was informed that, if he considered that a beginning should be made at once, the expenditure should be met from the provision in the budget for the existing schools or by reappropriation from other sources. Information as to how many schools have been actually opened under the scheme is not available. In the budget estimate for the ensuing year the D.P.I. has proposed a lump sum of Rs. 3,500 for improving the schools in the Vizagapatam Agency. It is for consideration whether the Agent to the Governor should be asked to furnish the particulars desired by the Additional Member by telegram.

2. As regards clause (b) of the question it is submitted that in G.O. No. 175, Educational, dated the 17th February 1916, the Govt. sanctioned the taking over under the management of the department of four aided schools for Khonds in the Ganjam Agency. They have also sanctioned the establishment of a sessional school for the education of Savara boys and the training of Savara teachers. It will be seen from para 3 of G.O. No. 194, Edcl., dated the 23rd February 1916, that the proposal to open additional elementary schools in the Ganjam Agency has been ordered
