Q. 31. Will the Government be pleased to appoint a standing committee of advisers with regard to the development of industries in this presidency, as in the Bombay presidency?

the meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 26th November 1914. His Excellency the Governor considered that a committee to advise the Dept. of Industries was unnecessary for a time of crisis. The matter was finally withdrawn.

In February last Mr. Trevelyan suggested the formation of an advisory board for the Industries Dept. No action was considered necessary on this & the matter was recently recorded - see p. 11. 905-20, dated the 20th August 1916. It may be noted here that the question of the organisation of Provincial departments, & the advisability of instituting Provincial Boards industries or advisory committees to include non-official members, is one which is to be considered by the forthcoming Industrial Commission. In the meanwhile it does not appear necessary to form an advisory committee now. The following draft reply is submitted for approval:-

" The ~~very~~ organization of Provincial Industries and the advisability of instituting Provincial Boards of Industries or Advisory Committees to include non-official members as one of the subjects which will shortly engage the attention of the Indian Industrial Commission. The Government propose to await the recommendation of the Commission before taking any action on the lines suggested by the Hon'ble Member."
