The Honourable Mr. B.V. Narasimha Ayyar :-

Home (Education) Department.

The information asked for the Additional Member is not available and it is for orders whether the Director should be asked to lay on the table a return showing the number of working hours per day in the Law College during the last ten years, and at the present day?

If it is considered that there is no special urgency in the matter, the following draft answer is submitted for approval:—

* The particulars required by the Honourable Member are not readily available, and have been called for. They will be furnished with to him, if he repeats his request at a subsequent meeting.

2. After the issue of the draft answer, the D.P.I. may be asked to furnish the particulars.

I saw Mr Davis as suggested by the Quilkey.

Mr Davis says that if it is a question of the time-tables he doubts if they would be suitable for more than 5 years. They have further changed with the growth of the college, with additions to the staff etc, & every year to year.

The working hours of the college are 10 am to 5 pm & Mr Davis
 says that this has been the case
 for the past 10 years.

His Quilkey considers that the answer might therefore be.

"The working hours of the college are from 10 am to 5 pm & have been so during the past 10 years."
