Roc No. 710. 7/16.

Station Madras, Dated the 6th December, 1916.

From (Name) C.A. Innes, Esq.,

(Designation) Ag. Director of Industries,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Educational) Department.

Sir,

In G.O.No.1077 Ed1. dated 29-9-1915 Government declined to exempt from the provisions of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification K. Thiruvengadam, a clerk in the Leather Trade School. I find that the clerk who was first entertained in February 1914 is still employed at the Leather Trade School, and it seems obvious that either his services should be dispensed with or that he should be confirmed.
He cannot be kept on indefinitely as an acting clerk.

2. I am in favour of the latter alternative. I am aware that ordinarily clerks are not exempted from the examination rules unless it can be shown that such exemption

the public interest. But the circumstances of all department like the Department of Industries, exceptional. The prospects of advancement are small, and qualified clerks are difficult to obtain. This man is reported to be competent in the discharge of his clerical duties, and he is a good typewriter and Mr. Guthrie specially trained him as a shorthand writer and also made use of him, so I am informed, in the laboratory and the tanning operations. He is now thoroughly familiar with the work of the Leather Trade School and I am of opinion that the balance of advantages lies in treating his case as special and in confirming him. I have the honor to request, therefore, that Government will reconsider their previous orders and exempt the clerk from the provisions of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Chimes

Ag. Director of Industries.

R.K.S.

NOTES.

Again G.O., No. , dated

Current No. 4543 From the Director of Industries, dated 6.10.1916.

SUBJECT

Exemption from the examination rules.

In the Special circumstances now reported by Mr. Jones, it is for consideration whether G.O. No. 1077 Edl., d/ the 29th Sep. 1915 may be modified and the exemption asked for granted. It is presumed that the proposed exemption is only in respect of the individual's appointment as clerk in the Leather Trades School which carries a pay of Rs 25-1-35 p.m.

2. Subject to approval a draft order is submitted.
