Question No. 182

The Honourable Mrs. B.V. Narasimha Ayyar :-

Please see the statement on page 52 of notes to Home (Education) Department, dated the 22nd August 1936.

Apparently all the members of the existing staff have been practising at the bar. It is not clear what the Government be pleased to state if there is any member of the Law College staff who has never been an active practitioner at the bar?

The Government do not believe that there are any such.

He D.F. I may see the proposed answers and say whether it is correct.

has answer might be

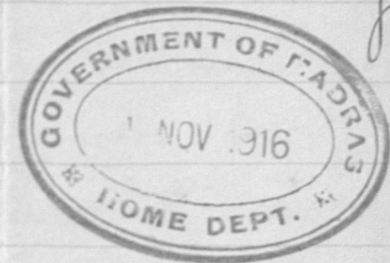

M

there is no member of the Cove staff who has never been an active practitioner of the War.

his home excludes the Principal

we cannot speak of the Principal & Staff.

I have below a letter from W. Davies giving the facts.

for 10. xi 16.

Madras Law College.

Date, 9. XI. 1916.

Dear Mr. Stone,

Perhaps I myself might be described as one 'who has never been an active practitioner at the bar'.

But I don't think there is any other member of the Staff[?] whom this could be said - tho' ^{I do} ~~possibly~~ not know how much practice Mr. T. Rajagopalachariar had when he joined the Staff in 1902. He has had none since.

Yours sincerely

Arthur Davies
