NOTES.

Home (En) Department

The resolution of the Govt. of India referred to in the question is under examination in the office and a note will be submitted separately. The resolution deals with many points which were previously under the consideration of the Govt. A good number of papers both in this department and in the Ltm department had to be collected. It is regretted that owing to the pressure of work caused by the move and the receipt of a large number of questions and resolutions - all of which had to be treated as very urgent - it has not been possible to submit the file earlier. Every endeavour is being made to expedite its disposal.
