His Excellency the Right Honorable
The Lord Pentland P.C. G.B. S.E. ....
Governor of Madras

The humble representation of J. V. Subbarao, Proprietor of the Central Book Depot, Rajahmundry
most respectfully sheweth.

- i That the book entitled "Vignanasayasastram" - copy of which submitted under separate post, had the fortune of being observed by your Excellency under
no. 696 of 15th March 1912, that the Selugu Ryots will derive much benefit by reading it.
- ii That the Director of Public Instruction has also approved the book to be worthy having iii That the petitioner most loyally salutes the Contribution 25% of the sale proceeds of this book towards Madras War Fund, for which your Excellency has been the President.

iv That the petitioner prays for orders to the Educational and Revenue Departments, to see that this book is adopted in all Elementary, Secondary, and Training schools libraries and supplied immediately; and that every village Karamam & Munsiff might order to take lessons from the same.

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Govt. patronage for books.

From J. V. Subba Rao No 516 dt 26.11.15

Register No. 4247 Ed.

M.R.R., Narasimha Rao's publication "Vyavaragga Sastramu" has been included by the Text book Committee in the list of books adopted for School Libraries and in that prescribed for the use of teachers (Vide pages 385 & 386 of Fort St. George Gazette dt 2.6.14).

M.R.R., J. V. Subba Rao, proprietor, Central book depot, Rajamundry, offers to contribute 25% of the sale proceeds of the book towards the Madras War-fund and requests :-

(1) that the book may be adopted in all elementary, Secondary and Training Schools Libraries and supplied immediately.

(2) that every Village Kurnam and munsif may be ordered to take lessons from the book

As.

As the book has already been included in the list of books adopted for School Libraries <sup>for the libraries</sup> Copies would have been purchased ~~if necessary~~. Submitted that it appears to be unnecessary therefore to consult the D.P.D. whether any Copies are required.

I write reference to the petitioner's second request, ~~and to the~~ the file may be forwarded ~~to~~ to the Revenue Dept. for ~~any~~ action which that Dept. may ~~as~~ deem fit to take.

I would acknowledge the promised contribution to the War Fund and say that we are now have already given all the official encouragement to the sale of the book that we consider necessary. There is far too much of a tendency to stifle good as a book seller's tent.

in villages. The petitioner does not however specifically make a request that copies of the book should be supplied to village officers, but merely suggests that they should be asked "to take lessons from the same". No action seems necessary in this department and the file may, it is submitted, be returned to Educational.
