Muhammad Beg who has been holding the appointment sub pro tem on Rs.20, the minimum pay of the post, has been exempted from time to time from the examination rules originally by the Director and subsequently by the Government. Successive Headmasters of the school have spoken well of the teacher's work and character and ^{since} service it has not been found possible to secure the services of a trained Secondary grade Muhammadan teacher for the low salary attached to the post his permanent exemption is strongly recommended. In the event of the application being entertained Muhammad Beg will not be allowed a larger salary than Rs.20 per mensem so that when there is a possibility of securing a qualified Muhammadan teacher for the post later he (Muhammad Beg) may be transferred to another post carrying that salary.
