Subject. Petition of Delawan Hussain Sahib, for exemption to appear for the Cr. judicial test, higher grade and the Preeis writing test.

From the Cr. Presy. Mag. IV. D. 135 D. 10. 2. 16.

[cf. 421 B]

As

The petitioner was allowed to appear for the Cr. judicial test, higher grade and the Preeis writing test for ~~two~~ years 1914 and 1915. Owing to indifferent health, he says he was not able to get through the tests in 1914. In 1915, he appeared for the Cr. judicial test only (for Hindustani, translation test, no exemption was granted), and he failed to pass in that year.

2. If any Concession is to be given to the applicant, it appears that it ~~will~~ ^{should} be confined to the Cr. judicial test, and not to Preeis writing as he did not avail himself of the Concession given him in respect of the latter test in 1915, and that it should be given only for one year as he pleads indifferent health for ~~that~~ the year 1914. Subject to order that may be passed ~~therein~~ the file may be transferred to Edel for the issue of necessary order.
