G.O. No. 193

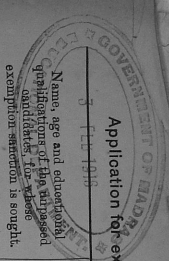

DATED 23-2-16.

[Despatch Abstract.]

Exemption Extending the temporary
— from the Criminal Judicial test lower grade granted to Mr. Swamy, Sub-inspector of Police until the publication of the results of the next examination and permitting him
to appear for the test.

P. C. No. 73 of 1916

Application for exemption from the Examination rules of an unpassed candidate for employment in the office of an Inspector of Police.

2	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Name, age and educational qualifications of the applicant. The nature of the examination for which exemption is sought.		The post in which it is proposed to employ him and the nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub. pro tem, or temporary.		The sanctioned post to which the candidate is proposed to be given exemption from which exemption is sought.		The period for which the appointment is expected to last.		The period for which the candidate is proposed to be given exemption from the examination rules of an unpassed candidate for employment in the office of an Inspector of Police.		Remarks.
Mr. L.P. Swamy - Age 31 years. Permanently exempted from passing the Matriculation examination in G.O.No.56 Mis. Educational, dated 21st January 1908. (V) only sat holding a sub Inspector's place.		Inspector of Police.		Rs. 150/-		Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade.		Permanent.		Will the results of the examination to be held in October 1916 are published.
This is the fourth application. The previous applications were disposed of in G.O.Nos. 67, 275 & 40, Edl., dated 25-1-12, 11-3-14 and 16-2-15 respectively.
This Inspector is the best man available for Cuddapah Town. He has the tact to prevent trouble in a place where the religious and other disputes make a disturbance a possibility at any time. He is liked by the people and is influential, and his reversion to the Sub-Inspector's grade is not desirable in the interests of the service. He has a sound working knowledge of law, and should be able to pass this year. He will be granted leave for a period just before the examination, so that he may prepare for it.
