2. That, in consequence of a Notification published in the Educational sheet of the Fort St. George Gazette of the 10th Instant announcing the cancellation of the selection of "Great Britain and the Present European Crisis" as one of the Text-Books for non-detailed study for the S.S.L.C of 1917, I have now humbly submitted a D/O (Copy herewith) enclosing a copy of "Lord Clive", to the Hon'ble J.H. "Lord Clive" herein referred to may be selected in lieu of the one announced to have been cancelled as per gazette notification referred to above.

3. That should this book be selected in lieu of the one now cancelled, I humbly beg your excellency's leave to submit that your excellency will kindly permit me to give away the whole of the net proceeds accruing from the publishing and the sale of these books towards the Funds of the Hospital Ship Madras, myself being fully satisfied with any honorarium your Excellency may be pleased to present to me should your Excellency's Government be pleased to undertake the printing and sale of these books through the Government Press, Madras or otherwise after the model of the University doing so for their own University Texts through the agency of the S.P.C.K. Press, Madras, in which case then, I shall place two copies of this work and the necessary blocks in the hands of your Excellency's government with the request that the blocks may be returned to me when the printing and publishing of the required number of copies have been made and they are no more needed.

Should the above proposal be considered by your excellency to be impracticable, I beg your excellency's leave to submit that myself shall undertake or arrange to undertake the printing, publishing and the sale of these books; but but then I request your excellency to accept my offer of a fifty per cent of the net proceeds of this whole transaction to be credited by me to the Funds of the Hospital Ship Madras.

4. In this connection, I beg your excellency's permission to submit that your noble excellency has been graciously pleased to accept my offer of 25 packs of my new Playing Cards (Indian Pattern) and 1,000 New Year Cards of our special design based on the present War to be forwarded as a New Year's gift to the fighting men at the Front and elsewhere and the parcel has under your excellency's direction since been immediately despatched to the Military Secretary who has also acknowledged the receipt of the same.

Your Noble and Gracious Excellency:

As everybody knows this is a period in which every true citizen of the state should, I fully believe, come forward with that help, however trivial it may be, to relieve the distress of the afflicted even to the smallest extent, I approach your Excellency with the request and suggestions contained in this letter and I therefore beg your excellency's leave to request your excellency to pass such orders as your excellency may deem fit on the point.

I most respectfully and humbly beg leave to remain, your Excellency's most obedient and loyal subject,

To

The Hon'ble J.H. Stone, Esq., M.A., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

Most Honoured Sir,

I most respectfully beg your honor's leave to submit that I read from the Fort St. George Gazette of the 10th instant that the selection of "Great Britain and the present European Crisis" as one of the Text-Books for the S.S.L.C of 1917 has been cancelled.

This notification in the Gazette prompts me to remind your honour about my work "Lord Clive -- An English Drama in Five Acts" about which I paid my personal respects to your honour at Ooty in 1914 with a note of introduction from the late lamented Rev. Father J.D.W. Sewell, S.J., when your honor received me very kindly and was further pleased to direct me to forward two copies thereof to the Director of Public Instruction -- an order I very promptly obeyed and I was very hopeful then but nothing came out of it though 1915 has passed away.

May I now be allowed to request your honor to consider about this matter now that the choice of another book and that for a non-detailed study should in all probability be in your honor's contemplation. As I personally pointed out to your honour to your honour, the last lines forming the close of this work of mine are practically illustrated by the mighty stand the British have had at Ypres and Yser, their brilliant success at Marne and the like in this present European conflict.

The tacking of the Benefits of British Rule in India to the tail end of this work and a little piece already approved by the Department and ordered to be placed in conspicuous places in Schools under public management in this Presidency will, I beg your honour's permission to think, be an additional claim for the book receiving your honour's favor at this time.

I most respectfully beg to be excused for this intrusion on your honour's very precious minutes.

I most respectfully beg to remain,

Most Honoured Sir,

Your honour's most obedient and humble servant,
