From (Name) The Hon. Mr. J.H. Stone, M.A., F.R.H.S.C.I.E.

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department.

Sir,

In G.O.No. 691 Edl., Vis., dated 11th June 1914, the Committee of the Madras School of Music were informed that in addition to the ordinary grants-in-aid paid to the school, Government would for the year 1914-15 bear, subject to a maximum of Rs.3,000, any deficit that might result from the working of the school on the better lines proposed by the Committee. The Committee have not been able to give effect to the proposals and the promised aid has not been utilized by them. They have since decided to close the school at the end of January 1916. This is unfortunate - Instruction in Pianoforte and Violin playing, Singing, Harmony and the Theory of Music is given in the school, and by its closure, European pupils for whom it was mainly intended are deprived of systematic instruction in those subjects. Further, it was hoped that with the increased aid promised by Government (Vide G.O.No. 426 Mis., Edl., dated 17th April 1914) the Committee would, on Miss Iles' resignation, be able to secure the services of another efficient teacher and to provide for the holding of regular classes in singing for the benefit of teachers in European schools. This hope also has not been fulfilled. When I was informed of the Committee's decision to close the school, it occurred to me that advantage might be taken to provide for the teaching of singing in European schools by utilizing the services of Miss Iles, the headmistress of the School of Music as peripatetic teacher of singing in Madras. The Inspector of European and Training Schools was accordingly asked to formulate a scheme, and the scheme proposed by him is contained in his letter R.C.No. 185 E/1914, dated 14th December 1915, a copy of which is enclosed. The carriage allowance of Rs.50 per mensem suggested in para 5 of the Inspector's letter need not be considered. Miss Iles has for sometime past been a visiting teacher of singing in the Presidency Training school for Mistresses, and in the absence of special provision for the employment of a separate Music teacher in that institution, Sir Alfred Bourne allowed her on Miss Dixon's recommendation to teach singing to the students of the school part-time and appointed her, as a temporary measure, as 7th Assistant in that school sub pro tem on a salary of Rs.30 per mensem in a grade of Rs.30-2-40 with effect from 1st December 1913. The arrangement which has entailed no extra cost on Government is still in force, and when Miss Iles was asked whether she would be willing to undertake the duties of Music Teacher for the European schools in Madras part-time, she has expressed her preparedness to do so provided she is not required to sever her connection with the Presidency Training school for Mistresses. I see no objection to the arrangement suggested by her, but as the rules do not seem to admit of her drawing the salaries of both the posts, I beg to propose that she be appointed Music Teacher for the European schools in Madras including the Presidency Training School for Mistresses on a consolidated salary of Rs.180/- per mensem and that the appointment be sanctioned temporarily for a year at the outset with effect from 1st March 1916. The post of 7th Assistant in the Presidency Training school for Mistresses will, during this period, be kept vacant.

2. The cost of the scheme recommended is as follows:-

Salary of lecturer at Rs.180 per mensem	Rs.2,160
Books etc.	200

	Rs.2,360

Page 136 C.R.E. for 1916-17

For meeting this charge the allotment of Rs.2,000/- in the next year's budget under "22 G. Education-Grants-in-aid-Non-European schools - Teaching grants-schools special-Technical Girls" being no longer required will be transferred with the sanction of Government to the head '22-E Government schools General-Secondary schools for Girls' salaries' together with Rs.360 from the provision for salaries under 'Training schools for mistresses'. It may be mentioned in this connection that it has been customary to exhibit this allotment of Rs.2,000 under 'Teaching grants to Non-European schools' though the major portion of the charge is incurred on account of European education since it is understood that the Madras school of Music was not intended exclusively for European girls. The grant was awarded annually under Chapter VI of the Grant-in-aid Code. On receipt of the sanction of Government to the scheme proposed, the necessary reappropriation statement will be submitted.

Office of the Inspector of European and Training schools, Madras, 14th December

From

M.S.H. Thompson, Esq., B.A.,

Ag. Inspector of European and Training Schools, Madras.

To

The Director of Public Instruction,

M a d r a s.

S i r,

With reference to your Proceedings R.C.No. 8756/1915, dated 3rd December 1915, I have the honour to suggest the following alternative scheme for favour of consideration:

1. Miss Iles is willing to accept a salary of Rs.150 per mensem as a part-time teacher provided she is permitted to draw the Rs.30 per mensem she already draws as visiting teacher of singing at the Presidency Training school for Mistresses. She will lecture once a week at the centre, visit three schools a week, and give two 40 minute lessons at each (one for juniors and one for seniors.)

2. The schools will be grouped under two heads -(a) those requiring special attention and regular lessons and (b) those requiring an occasional visit only. There are about 8 schools belonging to the former class, and these will be visited every other week. Miss Iles will, as far as possible, work through the class- teachers- will set exercises to be practised the week she does not visit the schools - but she will herself teach the week she visits the schools, and will give the teachers all the help and advice they need. The schools belonging to the second class (like the Collegiate Girls' school, the Doveton Girls' school, etc.) will be visited once a month and all necessary help and advice will be given. Once a week a lecture for teachers will be given at the Centre. The course will deal fully with the theory and practice of class -t singing. The lectures will be delivered from 5 to 6-30 P.M.

3. In order to be eligible for a teachers' certificate in class - singing a teacher should have been through two session's work, that is, practically a year's work, as in the case of teachers of Domestic Economy, who attend the Centre once a week for two sessions.

4. After about three month's work, when Miss Iles will have become acquainted with the needs of the schools she will draw up circular instructions and syllabuses, showing clearly the work that is expected at each stage.

5. Miss Iles suggested a visit once every week to the schools needing special attention, but she asked for a carriage allowance of Rs.50 per mensem.

Not necessary when to pay Rs.50

6. The cost of the above scheme is as follows:

Salary of lecturer at Rs.150 per mensem	Rs.1,800
Books etc.	200

	2,000

7. Miss Iles's work would for the present be confined to Madras City. Her circulars would be sent to all the schools in the Presidency.

I have the honour etc.,
