GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

To
The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to bring to your notice that the Registrar of Books is demanding from us copies of "Sava Thana Dharma" printed in our press. This is a periodical registered as a newspaper by the Post Master General, and as such I venture to submit that there is no necessity to send it to the Registrar regard being had to the fact that the Registrar is not furnished with copies of newspapers and magazines registered by the Post Master General. As the matter is of considerable importance to the proprietors of periodicals, I would request you to get the ruling of the Government in the matter.

* Section 5 and exception (ii) to Section 9 of Press & Registration of Books Act, 1867.

I have further to bring to your notice that copies of the 'Sava Thana Dharma' are forwarded to the District Magistrate as laid down in the Press Act.

Viz. Section 16
of District Press
Act I, 1910.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Sir,

p-2 Supra With reference to Endt.No.402-1 Edl., dated 7th February 1916 (forwarded with the Endt. of the Director of Public Instruction, N.R.C. No.1182/16 dated 14th February 1916),

I have the honour to state that it has been decided in G.O.

② No.65, Edl., dated 8th March 1872, that the 'periodical works'

copies of which are exempted from delivery to this office are newspapers (Sec.5 and 9) ^{and} that all Magazines, Reviews, Literary and

and Scientific Journals and similar periodical literature published in parts at fixed intervals and intended to be continued for an indefinite time, should also be registered in the same way as books.

Sanātana Dharma is a journal belonging to the latter class of 'periodical works,' as it contains partly news and partly short instructive essays on miscellaneous subjects.

2. It may also be observed that similar periodicals, i.e., periodicals "which partake both the nature of Newspapers in certain respects and of instructive books" are registered in other provinces, e.g., Bengal, Bombay and the United Provinces.

3. The letter referred to me for remarks is herewith returned as desired.

I have the honour to be,

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT.

Question of registering periodicals
under Section 9(a) of the Press & Reg.
of Books Act No. 1867

From

the manager, West Coast Press & the 24.1.16
the Reg. of Books No. 127/16 dt. 18.2.16

Register No. 402 & 28 E.O.

The manager, West Coast Press, Calicut, complains that the Registrar of Books is demanding from him copies of "Saratthana Dharma" printed in his press, though the periodical has been registered as a newspaper and copies of it are regularly ~~supplied~~ forwarded to the D. Magistrate as laid down in ^{Section 16} the Indian Press Act I, 1910.
The periodical is a monthly magazine devoted to religion and the monthly issues appear to have been regularly registered in the Catalogues of Books ~~registered~~ (Vide page 270 of the Catalogue of Books ~~for~~ registered during the 3rd quarter of 1915).
The periodical ^{work} appears therefore to partake the nature of both of a newspaper and of a book.
The question whether such publications are exempt from registration under ^{the} Press & Registration of Books Act No. 1867, has been raised so early as in 1872 by the then Registrar of Books who was

(R)

informed
This is R.O. No. 65 Ed. 2, the 18th March 1872

that such publications were certainly not newspapers and that ^{they must} therefore be registered.

It is therefore submitted that the petitioner

may therefore be told that the periodical works
should be registered in the same way as books
~~and that copies thereof should be delivered~~
~~to the Registrar of Books.~~
