Letter—from the Hon'ble Sir E. D. MACLAGAN, K.C.I.E., C.S.I., Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education (Education).
To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
Dated—Delhi, the 7th February 1916.
No.—1043.

With reference to your letter No. 1425, Educational, dated the 14th December 1915, I am directed to say that the Government of India are pleased to renew the sanction to the abolition of the post of Vice-Principal of the Law College, Madras, which was originally communicated in this department letter No. 381-C.D., dated the 4th March 1913, but which has lapsed under article 293 of the Civil Account Code.

2. I am, however, to remark in this connection that in the interests of economy it would seem desirable to defer the introduction of the scheme for the reorganization of the staff of the Law College, Madras, until a more opportune time.

Order—No. 310, Educational, dated the 22nd March 1916.

The papers read above relate to the reorganization of the Madras Law College and the revision of the rules relating to its constitution and working. In their Order No. 224, dated the 15th March 1913, the Government sanctioned with the previous approval of the Government of India, the employment of a staff in the college consisting of a Principal on Rs. 1,000-25-1,250 per mensem, two professors on Rs. 500 each, six assistant professors on Rs. 250 each, and a curator on Rs. 200. It was also laid down that the professors and assistant professors should be practising lawyers of certain specified standing and that the hours of work of the college should be so arranged as to fall between 10 in the morning and 7 in the evening.

2. The Government have since given the whole subject further consideration and have had the advantage of detailed consultation with the present Principal and the College Council, the introduction of the scheme being held in abeyance in the meantime. As a result the Government have come to the conclusion that the following alterations are necessary :—

(i) The Government feel that it is undesirable that they should tie their own hands by prescribing fixed minimum periods of practice and so limiting the field of their choice in selecting professors or assistant professors. The reference to these qualifications will accordingly be omitted from the rules.

(ii) The Government have also arrived at the decision that it is undesirable to hold classes after 5 p.m., hours later than that being likely to deprive the college of athletic life. The existing hours of work, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., should therefore continue.

(iii) In consequence of these alterations the appointment of a curator on Rs. 200 will become unnecessary and this post will accordingly be omitted from the reorganized scale of establishment.

3. Subject to the modifications indicated above, and with the previous sanction of the Government of India, the reorganization sanctioned in G.O. No. 224, Educational, dated the 15th March 1913, will now be introduced with effect from the 8th July 1916. The Director of Public Instruction will be requested to see that no extra staff is employed in advance of actual requirements.

4. This sanction will be registered as No. 23 of 1916-17.

5. The rules of the college have been revised with reference to the above decisions and also in a few minor respects. The following notification containing the revised rules as approved by the Government will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

NOTIFICATION.

In supersession of all rules previously prescribed, the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the following revised rules regulating the constitution and working of the Law College, Madras :—

RULES REGULATING THE CONSTITUTION AND WORKING OF THE MADRAS LAW COLLEGE.

Preamble.

THE HON'BLE DIWAN BAHADUR

P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR AVARGAL, C.I.E.,

Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

Dated Fort St. George, the 22nd March 1916.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 104, Education, dated the 7th February 1916, renewing the sanction to the abolition of the post of vice-principal of the Law College, Madras, and to offer the following remarks in regard to the suggestion in paragraph 2 of your letter to defer the introduction of the scheme for the reorganization of the staff of the college until a more opportune time.

2. The Madras University has recently extended the B.L. course from two to three years. The first and second examinations in law and the B.L. degree examination according to the new regulations are to be held for the first time in 1916, 1917 and 1918 respectively. The Government have also sanctioned the opening of a special class for the B.L. degree examination under the old regulations for the year 1916-17. Thus three classes will be held from July next—the first and second year classes under the new regulations and the B.L. class under the old regulations. The Governor in Council therefore feels that the introduction of the scheme cannot be deferred any longer and that the employment of the additional staff from the next financial year is unavoidable. The Governor in Council has therefore decided to give effect to the scheme from July next and he trusts that this decision will, in the circumstances set forth above, meet with the approval of the Government of India.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR,

Secretary to Government.

From the Government of India, dated the 7th February 1916, No. 104-Edn.

With reference to the remark in the Government of India's letter that it would seem desirable to defer the introduction of the scheme for the reorganization of the staff of the Law College, Madras, until a more opportune time, it is submitted that it may not be advisable to postpone the scheme for the following reasons.

G.O. 727, Educational, 3rd July 1915. The B.L. course has been lengthened from two to three years and the first, second and degree examinations according to the new regulations are to be held for the first time in 1916, 1917 and 1918 respectively. Thus all the three classes accordingly to these regulations will be working in 1917-18 and the full staff will necessarily have to be employed with effect from that year. As the Government have sanctioned the opening of a B.L. class under the old regulations during 1916-17, there will be three classes in that year—the B.L. class under the old regulations and the first and second year classes under the new regulations. Additional staff will therefore be required in 1916-17 also. In submitting the proposals for the opening of a B.L. class under the old regulations in 1916-17, the Director stated that if the proposals for the reorganization were sanctioned before June 1916 there would be no need for any extra Professors on account of this proposal and that if final orders were not likely to be issued by the end of the current official year, tentative pro-

In G.O. 1217, Educational, 12th November 1915. K proposals for additional staff for the B.L. class would have to be made. It seems thus clear that the revised staff should be employed with effect from 1916-17. The necessary provision has also been made in the budget estimate for the ensuing year. Orders are solicited whether the scheme may be sanctioned with effect from 1916-17 and the Government of India informed as above. Financial may be consulted u.o.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

A full year's provision on account of the introduction of the scheme for the reorganization of the Law College staff has already been made in the next year's budget. The average extra cost of the scheme is Rs. 1,197½ per mensem or Rupees 14,366½ per annum, set off by a saving under temporary establishments of Rs. 250 per mensem or Rs. 3,000 per annum. As pointed out in Educational office-note at K ante, there will in any case be some extra cost in 1916-17 on account of additional Professors.

Orders are solicited whether in the above circumstances, the proposal of Educational to introduce the scheme with effect from 1916-17 may be accepted in Financial.

We may agree.

L. E. KERSHAW—18-2-16.

I think we cannot avoid introducing the scheme in 1916-17. All we can do is to ask that the establishment shall not be appointed in advance of requirements.

A I understand that for part of 1916-17 there will be only two classes working and, if so, the full establishment will not be required at once. In view of the suggestion of the Government of India that introduction should be deferred, Honourable Member (Financial) had better see the draft.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

With reference to the Chief Secretary's remark at A supra, it is submitted that three classes will be working during the entire college year, 1916-17, the first and second year classes under the new regulations and the B.L. class under the old regulations the opening of which was sanctioned in G.O. No. 1217, Educational, dated the 12th November 1915. Thus the full establishment will be required for the whole of the College year, 1916-17. It is therefore submitted that the reorganization scheme may be sanctioned with effect from the 8th July 1916, the date of the reopening of the College after the summer vacation.

2. Orders have already been passed on the revision of the rules in accordance with the new scheme—vide Notes to G.O. No. 1424, Educational, dated the 14th December 1915. A draft order sanctioning the introduction of the new scheme and the publication of the revised rules and a draft letter to the Government of India are submitted for approval.

2. The file may now be circulated to His Excellency the Governor and Honourable Member (Financial).

P.S.,

The papers read above relate to the reorganization of the Madras Law College and the ~~revised~~ revision of the rules relating to its constitution and working. In their order No.224, dated the 15th March 1913, the Government ~~sanctioned~~ with the previous approval of the Government of India, the employment of a ~~revised~~ staff in the College consisting of a Principal on Rs.1000-25-1250 per mensem, two professors on Rs.500 each ~~per mensem~~, six assistant professors on Rs.250 each, ~~per mensem~~ and a curator on Rs.200 ~~per mensem~~. It was also laid down therein that the professors and assistant professors professors should be practising lawyers of certain specified standing at the ~~bar~~ and that the hours of ~~their~~ work ~~of the~~ should ~~in view of the fact that the~~

~~are to be members of the bar in active~~ ~~practice~~ be so arranged as to fall between 10 ~~in the morning~~ and ~~at~~ 7 in the evening.

2. The Government have since given
 the whole subject further consideration and have had the advantage of detailed consultation with the present Principal and the College Council, the ~~introduction of the~~ scheme being held in abeyance in the meantime.

As a result to go to

~~we~~ have come to the conclusion that the following some slight alterations in the ~~is~~ organization already sanctioned are necessary :-
 needed in the following respects ~~in~~

(i) The Government ~~are of opinion~~ ^{feel}

that while it is desirable that com~~petent men should be secured for the~~
 it is undesirable that

various posts, they should ~~themselves~~ ^{take} tie their own hands by prescribing fixed minimum periods of practice and limiting the field of choice in selecting professors or assistant professors. The reference to these qualifications will accordingly be omitted from the rules.

(ii) They have also arrived at the decision that it is undesirable to hold classes after 5 P.M.,

being likely to ~~be~~ ^{have} ~~the~~ ^{later than that} ~~the~~ ^{reasons that the period of the} ~~day~~ ^{is} ~~immediately~~ ^{succeeding that hour} ~~and~~ ^{all} ~~settled~~ ^{for} ~~active~~ ^{work} ~~will~~ ^{be} ~~the~~ ^{that} ~~the~~ ^{selection of those hours} ~~will~~ ^{completely} ~~deprive~~ the college of ~~the~~ ^{athletic} life. The ~~existing~~ ^{existing} hours of work, 10 A.M. to 5 P.M., should continue.

(iii) In consequence of these alterations, the appointment of a curator on Rs.200 will become ~~unnecessary~~ ^{unnecessary} and this post will accordingly be omitted from the reorganized scale of establishment.
