To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

EDUCATIONAL Department.

Sir,

In my letter R.C. No. 1336 of 1916, dated 24th February 1916 on which orders were passed in G.O. No. 226 Edl., dated 1st March 1916, I stated that the attendance of the Government Girls' School, Vellore, has considerably fallen on account of the prevalence of plague in the town and that I had instructed the Inspectress to dispense with the services of the temporary teacher on Rs. 30/- per mensem whose retention in the school until the 31st instant was sanctioned in G.O. No. 416 Edl., dated 23rd April 1915. The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle, reports that the fall in the strength was temporary being entirely due to the prevalence of plague in the town, that the strength is sure to rise to its normal level as soon as the epidemic subsides and that it will be a great hardship to send away a teacher who has been for some years past in the school, merely because of a temporary and accidental fall in its strength.

2. As there is force in the Inspectress's argument and as it appears from the recent plague returns that the disease has shown signs of marked abatement in the town, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the retention of the temporary teacher on Rs. 30/- per mensem in the Government Girls' School, Vellore, for another year from 1st April 1916.

The provision for the salary of the teacher has been included in the Budget Estimates for 1916-1917.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. Krishnamoorti

for Director of Public Instruction.

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Retention of a temporary teacher on Rs 30 per. employed in the Govt girls' school, Vellore.

From the D.P.D., Rec No 1336/16 on the 24th Feb. 1916.

Register No. 1051.

The D.P.D. did not first apply for the retention of the temporary teacher on Rs 30 p.m employed in the Govt. girls' school, Vellore, because the strength of the school had considerably fallen owing to the prevalence of plague in the town. He ~~later~~ instructed the inspectors to apply for the renewal of the sanction to the post after the school had regained its normal strength and attendance.

2. The retention of the teacher is now applied for, not because the school has regained its strength, but because of ^{great} hardship of sending away a teacher who has been for some years past in the school; that is to say, the application ^{appears to have been} made not in the interest of the school, but in the interest of the teacher. It is, however, urged that the strength of the school is sure to rise to its normal level.

3. It is for consideration whether the sanction may not be held in abeyance till the strength of the school has actually risen and the need for the additional teacher is justified, or whether in anticipation of the rise in strength the retention of the teacher ^{for another year} may be sanctioned. In the latter case, the draft order below is submitted for approval. Acceptance of Financial is not necessary.
