GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

G.O. 1093, Educational, dated the 2nd October 1915.

Letter—from P. L. MOORE, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 1st March 1916.
No.—R. C. 196-Aud.

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to authorise the Inspector-General of Police to sanction the exemption, from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special tests notification, of Inspectors of Police desirous of appearing for the criminal judicial test, higher grade, subject to the condition that no candidate shall be permitted to appear for the test more than three times.

2. In their Order 1941, Judicial, dated the 18th August 1915, Government directed that all prosecuting police officers appointed thereafter should have passed the criminal judicial test, higher grade, and to this end, they empowered the Inspector-General of Police in their Order 1093, Educational, dated the 2nd October 1915, to grant exemptions under the Special test examination notification to Sub-Inspectors whose general educational qualifications are not such as to entitle them to admission to the test. A similar concession is, I think, necessary in the case of Inspectors of Police also. There are Inspectors who have an aptitude for prosecuting work, but are not qualified to appear for the criminal judicial test, higher grade, as they have not passed the Intermediate examination of the Madras University or an equivalent test. Applications have already been received by me from two such Inspectors for exemption.

Order—369, Educational, dated the 4th April 1916.

In the circumstances stated, the Inspector-General of Police will be authorised to sanction also the exemption, from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special tests notification, of Inspectors of Police desirous of appearing for the criminal judicial test, higher grade, subject to the condition that the Inspector-General shall not permit a candidate to appear for the test more than three times.

2. The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette:—

NOTIFICATION.

In note (8) to article 4 of the Special tests notification added by notification 128 published on page 685 of Part I-B of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 19th October 1915, insert the words "Inspectors and" before the words "Sub-Inspectors of Police" occurring therein.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. 369, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED THE 4TH APRIL 1916.

[SUBJECT.—Delegation to the Inspector-General of Police of the power of permitting Inspectors of Police without the necessary educational qualifications to appear for the Criminal judicial test (higher grade).]

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated the 1st March 1916, R. C. 196-Aud.

In G.O. 1093, Educational, dated the 2nd October 1915, the Inspector-General of Police was empowered to sanction exemption from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special Tests Notification of Sub-Inspectors of Police desirous of appearing for the Criminal judicial test, higher grade, subject to the condition that the Inspector-General shall not permit a candidate to appear for the test more than three times. The Inspector-General now requests that he may be empowered to grant similar exemption to Inspectors of Police also.

2. Attention is solicited to paragraph 2 of the office-note on page 9 of the notes to G.O. 1941, Judicial, dated the 18th August 1915, in which it was noted that Police Inspectors should ordinarily have passed the F.A. or the Intermediate examination and would therefore be qualified to appear for Criminal (higher), that cases in which persons not so qualified were exempted and appointed as Police Inspectors would naturally be few, that it was unlikely that any of them would be considered fit for Prosecuting Inspector's place and that if any were found to exist, their case might come up to Government for special exemption. The above view was accepted by Judicial and consequently the Inspector-General was not empowered to grant exemption to Inspectors of Police. It seems doubtful whether in the circumstances above stated the Inspector-General's request that he may be authorized to grant similar exemption from the general educational qualifications of Inspectors of Police will be sanctioned by the Government. The remarks of the Judicial Department may be invited.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Please see—

(1) paragraph 2 of the Judicial Department note and paragraph 2 of the Educational Department note on page 9 of the notes to G.O. 1941, Judicial, dated the 18th August 1915,

(2) paragraph 3 of that order, and

(3) G.O. 1093, Educational, dated the 2nd October 1915.

In the circumstances set out in the Educational Department note above it is perhaps unnecessary to modify G.O. 1093, Educational, dated the 2nd October 1915. There seems, however, to be no serious objection to extending those orders to the case of Inspectors also.
