From (Name) K. T. B. TRESSLER ESQ.,

(Designation) DIRECTOR OF INDUSTRIES,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

EDUCATIONAL Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that I have prepared a number of Bulletins recording observations made by the Department etc., Similar bulletins are printed by the Department of Agriculture and I asked the Superintendent, Government Press to print mine also, but he says Government sanction is required.

I accordingly request that he may be instructed to take up the work. The bulletins run to about 6 pages of printed matter Octavo size.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Printing of the bulletins prepared by the Director of Industries.
From the D.I. No K 141. of 8.3.16.

Register No. 890.

(J) Please see G.O. No. 119 Est., dated the 8th February 1915. According to the question asked in the legislative Council of the 2nd February 1915 and the answer thereto on the subject of the issue of bulletins by the Department of Industries. The Director states that he has prepared bulletins & desires to get them printed in the Govt Press. Bulletins are at present issued by educational institutions, such as the Teachers' College & the Presidency College (Botany Section). But, in the case of certain bulletins regarding the use of Anderson oil expellers recently forwarded to Govt by the Director of Industries, the Secretary observes that

This was approved by A.E. and H.M. (Rev)

that they should not be issued by the Director himself but should be sent for the approval of Govt after they had been completed by the Director. It is for orders whether ~~these~~ ~~bulletins~~ the other bulletins should also be treated similarly or whether the Director may be permitted to issue them himself and the S.G.P. authorized to print them + stock for sale.

I take it that some of the bulletins proposed to be issued relate to unfinites experiments?

In reply to a telephone message the Director states that the bulletins deal with scientific points connected with the experiments met and that each bulletin records a complete experiment.
