Educational Dept.

The Additional member asked a question on almost the same subject at the meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 1st February 1916. He was told in reply that beyond the establishment of a leather school the Govt. had undertaken no special measures to facilitate the manufacture of leather goods. The position has not since changed. Attention is solicited to this Dept. note on pages 10 + 11 of ~~note~~ G.O. No. 109. Est., dated the 10th February 1916. The following draft answer is submitted for approval

"No such proposals have been received or considered by the Govt."
