10th March, 1916.

May it please Your Excellency,
Dear Sir,

I approach you to make the following humble representations:—

2- I have been sending my Weekly Press Service to you for the last seven months. I now pray that a copy or copies be subscribed for, and such help rendered me as you deem fit. I have sent herewith a copy of appreciations.

3- I accept anything that is paid, and my object is to maintain the Press Service and a press worked by girls.

4- I request that the last administration report and particulars about His Highness and the State may be ordered to me for publication. I have arranged with important papers to publish such articles.

5- I pray to God that He may make you sympathise with me.

Your most obedient servant,

R. Chellammal

Madras 15th October, 15

Dear Sir,

1- I request that you will read these extracts from appreciative letters and also place them before His Highness the Maharajah.

2- My press service is being liked, and I want that it should be in the hands of every Ruling Prince and his dewan, whether paying or not, so that each Native State may be posted with the activities in the other States in a handy volume.

3- I incur large charges and look to advanced States like yours to help me with administration Reports, which will be reviewed in papers and also with money. But I want my service to be accepted, paid or not paid.

Yours truly,

THE
PRINCE AND PRESS.

SOME APPRECIATIONS.

"Prince AND Press."

A Weekly Press Service, containing all press notices on Native States.

It is sent to every State and thus it serves to keep one another informed.

The Service has been welcomed by several Indian States as can be found from the extracts from letters in the succeeding pages.

I.

The Dewan of Ajaigarh, Bundelkhaud :—

You have not stated the annual subscription of your "Weekly Service." This prevents ordinary persons from the benefit of your service. I see no reason why you should not fix an annual subscription for ordinary persons who might wish to read it.

II.

The State Kharlari, Ramdrug :—

I have enclosed herein a copy of the annual administration report. I am desired by the Chief Sahib to convey his thanks for the paise-worthy work you have undertaken. He wishes every success to your undertaking and desires to know the amount of subscription to be sent for the publication.

(4)

III.

Secretary, H. H. Gaekwar of Baroda, writes :—

We are willing to subscribe for one copy of your Journal for the use of His Highness the Maharajah Gaekwar. We are receiving the issue of your weekly since the month of August last and we shall have, therefore, no objection if you take the subscription year to commence from the 1st of that month.

IV.

H. H. Nawab of Sachin :—

I have duly received your letter and congratulate you on your very excellent idea of printing weekly press extracts of events in Native States.

V.

Private Secretary, H. H. Raja Saheb, Bansda State, :—

His Highness will be quite pleased to encourage you in your noble attempt and if any State publications are issued, we shall gladly send you a copy free of cost. Will you kindly let us know the annual subscription.

(5)

VI.

Dewan of Savanur :—

Thanking you very much for the press extracts and wishing you success to your service.

VII.

Chief Secretary, Government of Travancore :—

Mrs. R. Chellammal is requested to send four copies of her publication and to forward her bill in due course.

VIII.

Minister to H. H. the Rajah of Dewas :—

I find it to be nice attempt at keeping a handy record of the Native States in India. It will no doubt keep all of them in touch with the progressive work of each.

IX.

Secretary, H. H. Rajah of Devas .—

The Maharajah Sahib was much pleased to know that an educated lady like you is devoting herself to a career of usefulness to all Indian States.

(6)

X.

The Rajah of Mahajan, Bikanir :—

I request you to kindly accept me as one of the subscribers of your magazine and intimate to me the annual subscription to enable me to remit the same as soon as I receive the V. P. P. I shall certainly do my best to introduce you to my fellow-sardars.

XI.

Huzur Chitins, Jath State :—

I am directed to say that H. H. the Chief of Jath and the State Kharbari accept two copies, each one, of your extracts.

XII.

Private Secretary, Sir, M. Viswesvarayya K. C. I. E., Dewan of Mysore :—

The Dewan desires me to thank you for your courtesy in sending him a reprint of press notices relating to Native States in India. Will you kindly state what the subscription will amount to, and what contribution you expect from Sir M. Viswesvarayya.

(7)

XIII.

Foreign Minister, Jind State :—

I would ask you to please let me know the annual subscription of the press extracts concerning "Indian princes and the press" which you publish.

XIV.

Private Secretary, H. H. Jaipur :—

I shall feel very obliged if you please let me know the amount subscription of "Prince and Press."

XV.

Mrs Chellammal the proprietor of a weekly journal entitled "Prince and Peas", has been sending her periodical for the last seven months and now prays that a copy or copies may be subscribed for and such help rendered to her as this Govt may deem fit (page 1 C.F.). The Subscription to the journal is not known; but Mrs Chellammal would accept anything that is paid, her object, as she says, being to maintain her press service and a press worked by girls. Several of the Native States appear to have patronised the journal.

p 2 C.F.

2. It is submitted that the journal which contains only extracts from all press notices will not be of any use to educational institutions and it does not therefore ~~seem necessary~~ ~~for the Govt~~ seem necessary to consult the D.P.D. about its purchase for these institutions.

3. Perhaps the Public Depth may subscribe for a copy for the Sec^y Library and the Revenue Depth may also take a copy for the Newington. Submitted that the file may be forwarded to these Dep^{ts} as well as to Political with reference to Mrs Chellammal's request that she may be supplied with the "last administration report and particulars about the Highways of the State".
