SUBJECT.

Application of Mr. G. J. Cudry for long leave in 1917.

(replied)

Leaving out of account Mr. Braithwaite, who has been lent to the Govt. of India, Foreign department, and Mr. Smith who is on military ~~officer~~ services, the only two I. E. S. officers now on leave are Messrs Littlehales and Mayhew. These ~~two~~ officers are expected to return from leave in July and December next respectively. Thus there are no officers for whom leave in 1917 has actually been sanctioned.

2. Mr. Duncan of the Teachers' College has already intimated his intention to apply for furlough for about nine months in continuation of the summer vacation of 1917. His application has been registered - G.O. 72 Ed., dated the 24th January 1916. It is separately under consideration to open the new Training College at Rajahmundry with effect from the 1917-18; and if the war is not over by that time the recruitment of officers from home is not therefore possible, two of the ~~existing~~ existing I. E. S. officers may have to be posted temporarily to the new College.

When there is thus a necessity for additional officers it is for consideration whether it is advisable to allow officers to proceed on leave.
This contingency is, however, not certain
and registering of the application
does not impose any obligation on the Govt. to sanction the leave, if
at that time it is felt inconvenient
to spare the officer to go on leave.
