My Dear Bedford,
The bearer is that Mr. Hosdruy Dasappa Kamath who has applied to Government for exemption from the Examination Rules (which demand the F.A.) so that, indigent as he is, he may go in for the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade. He is already making a livelihood at the Cochin Bar in Munniff's Courts in the enclosed file

among the Konkani Brahmin community ^{from} among whom there are many traders in Native Cochin. Koodrug Dasappa Kamath was a very efficient young clerk in my District ~~Office~~ Court at Tellicherry; I had known him for exactly three years and four days when he left my Court, with my best wishes, to try his luck in Cochin. He was ten years in the District Court and I have a complete belief in his integrity and I know him to be well disposed towards Englishmen in general As an "Excused Matriculation" I sympathise with a person who wants to be excused the F. A. and I am able to say that his intelligence is much above the F. A. standard. His father died before he could pay for Harding Dasappa Kamath's going through the College course. My protégé comes from Mangalore and was educated there; he has the typical Mangalore manners. If he gets this exemption he will certainly make a very good thing of his profession and I am sure he deserves encouragement.

Yours very sincerely Hon'ble Mr. J. P. Bedford Lyda A. A. S.

⑦ 786 Edl.: of the 17th July 1915 in which the previous application of H.D. Dhanwarth for permission to appear for the external judicial test, lower grade, was negatived in conformity with the general policy of Govt. in regard to ^{similar} applications from individuals of native States and on the ground apparently that the application was not submitted through the proper ^{official} channel.

On the present occasion however the Dewan of Cochin, through whom the application has come up, is disposed to recommend the concession applied for. It is therefore for consideration whether the applicant may be ^{case be} permitted to appear for the external judicial test, lower grade, at two successive examinations as usual.

⑤ Attention is in this connection solicited to G.O. 1028 Edl., of the 20th Sept: 1915, in which one L. K. Varakateswara Ayyar, a clerk in the excise dept. of the Cochin State, was on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue permitted to appear for the Salt,
