- (C) dated 7th June 1896 and No. 732 Educational dated 14th December 1904 regarding the inclusion of the post of head peon of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, in the Superior service (vide list given in article 396 of the Civil Service Regulations). It is reported that the present incumbent of the post, a pensioned colour and pay havildar, who joined the appointment on ^{the} 1st June 1912 has more arduous duties to perform than any of his predecessors. His duties are (1) to supervise the boys when they are not engaged in any work, (2) to give the peons their respective watches and to drill them on Sundays and (3) to attend to the sanitary condition of the premises. Mr. Coombes states that the head of the watching staff in the other Reformatories in India is in the Superior service. I may also mention that when the Reformatory School, Chingleput, was under the control of the Jail Department the incumbent of the post in question was designated ^a head warder and as such was treated as an officer of the Superior service and that the duties and responsibilities of the head peon are in no way inferior to those of the head warder in a jail.

In view of these facts I agree with my predecessors Drs. D. Duncan and A. G. Bourne in the opinion that the post should be treated as one in the Superior service.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

Educational Department.

SIR,

In reply to Government Endorsement No.1266-1 Edl., dated 5th April 1916 referring to me for remarks a letter from the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, recommending that service as head peon of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, may be declared superior, I have the honour to state as follows:--

On three previous occasions Government have declined to accede to a similar recommendation, of the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, vide Government Orders No.678 Edl., dated 10th August 1895, No.408 Edl., dated 7th June 1896 and No.732 Edl., dated 14th December 1904. In his letter under reference the Director renews his recommendation that, in view of the duties performed by the head peon of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, the post may be classed as superior. But so long as the appointment bears bears an inferior designation, service in it will count for pension on the inferior scale only. ^{request of the} The Director of Public Instruction's ~~letter request~~ is therefore inadmissible.

Attention is also invited to the Government of India letter No. 2117-C.S.R., Finance Department, dated 10th March 1912, reproduced as paragraph 3 under Article 396 in the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations, introduced by correction slip No. XIV dated 6th May 1912.

^{letter of the} The Director of Public Instruction ~~letter~~ received with the Government Endorsement under reply is herewith returned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Accountant-General.

SUBJECT.

Inclusion of the post of head peon,
Reformatory School, Chingkeput, in the Superior Service

From

the D.P.D. no. 941/16 of the 29.3.16

Register No. 1266 & 1681 Ed!

- Please see ^{the} notes and orders with G.O. No. 732 Ed., of the 14th December 1904, from which it will appear that on three previous occasions, the Govt. declined to include the post of head peon of the Reformatory School, Chingkeput, in the Superior Service. The Director in recommending ~~the~~ reconsideration of the previous orders states that the present incumbent, a pensioned colour and pay Kavildar, has more arduous duties to perform than any of his predecessors. It may however be observed that all the three duties set forth on p. 2 C.F. are included in the list of duties and responsibilities ascribed to the head peon ~~of~~ so early as in 1895-1900.
- © Col I on p. 3 of G.O. 732 Ed., of the 4.12.04. It does not also appear that the D.P.D. has adduced sufficient reasons for a reconsideration of the previous orders. Attention is in this connection, solicited to the Hon'ble Sir George Frobe's remarks on page 3 of notes to that G.O. wherein he observed "xx I am not convinced that the head person of the future need be in superior service". It is therefore for consideration whether the Director's proposal may be negatived. If so, the draft below is for approval.
