The Secretary to Govt.
Educational Department
Madras.

Sir,

I beg to send herewith a copy of the book entitled "An Account of the different existing Systems of Sanskrit Grammar" by Dr. S. K. Belvalkar, M. A., Ph. D., Professor of Sanskrit, Deccan College, for favour of your patronage and encouragement.

The book has been very highly spoken of by the Press. The University of Bombay has presented it a Gold Medal and has also purchased one hundred copies in addition. The book is an original work intended primarily for the scholar, and as such it is not likely to command the popular market. Hence it is necessary that it should receive the patronage of Government, States, Universities and learned persons.

With this in view I am sending herewith a copy of the book in the hope that it might be referred to the proper authorities, who might recommend the purchase from the undersigned of at least as many copies as the Bombay University has done. The price of the book is Rs. 2 per copy.

Thanking you in anticipation of an early and favourable reply.

I beg to remain,

Yours faithfully,

W. S. S. S. S.
Manager.
