states that she is unable to submit a report on the working of the Weaving class during the year 1915-16 as the school was closed from January last on account of plague in the locality and as the attendance during the months of November and December 1915 was very poor for the same reason. The strength of the class on 27th March 1916, the date of the reopening of the school after plague had subsided, is reported to be 31 and on the 1st May to be 34.

2. Provision for the salary of the teacher has been included in the current year's budget.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

Ch. Krishna Rao

for Director of Public Instruction.
