Current No. 1895, Feb. From the G. & S., No. 540., dated the 29.8.1916.

SUBJECT. Just that information about the candidate recommended for the scholarship awardable to male members of a domestic community.

I've his letter No. 481/16, d/ the 28th January 1916, the D. P. D. had stated that J. A. Frost was in the second year of the B. A. course and that he intended to take the Honours course. The Govt. of India were accordingly informed in our letter No. 127 Edn's, of the 7th Feb. 1916, that the candidate was continuing his studies for the B. A. Honours course being then in the second year class. If this is the case Frost cannot appear for the final examination of the B. A. Honours degree earlier than April 1917. Before giving a reply to India the D. P. D. may be consulted w/o with a view to ensure accuracy.

Educational depth

Please see para 2 of the Secretary of State's dispatch referred to by India. It clearly deals with exemption from the 'responsions' at Oxford and not 'moderations' as surmised by the

which along with other matters has been pointed out by the University of Madras. A specific representation that the Madras intermediate examination ^{may be regarded} as equivalent to the Oxford 'Responsions' and the Cambridge 'Previous' has also been made by the local University. This has been forwarded to the Government of India who have recently been asked to state whether they have taken any action on it - vide D.O.
