From (Name) The Hon. MR. J. H. STONEMAN, A. P. M. S. C. I. B., (Designation) Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

As the sanction accorded in G. O. No. 688 Educational
No. dated 16th May 1915 to the retention of the two temporary teachers on Rs. 20 each per mensem in the Government Girls' School, Pollachi, expired on the 31st May last, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for their retention for another year from the 1st June 1916 and for raising the pay of one of them to Rs. 25/- per mensem with effect from 1st March 1917.

2. The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle,
reports

7/16
inspecting parties
from City

reports that the strength of the school has increased to 190 after plague has subsided and recommends the continuance of the two temporary teachers.

In this connection the Inspectress states that it is difficult to secure the services of good teachers on a salary of Rs. 10/- per mensem and requests that as the school is a complete Higher Elementary School with the 7th as the highest standard the pay of one of the temporary teachers may be fixed at Rs. 25/- per mensem so that the services of a competent and qualified Headmistress might be secured.

I consider the Inspectress's proposal to be reasonable and that the pay proposed for the head teacher of a Higher Elementary Girls' School viz., Rs. 25 per mensem is but moderate.

In the absence, however, of budget provision for the purpose in the current year's budget I recommend that the increase should have effect from 1st March 1917.

Provision for the salary of the two temporary teachers on Rs. 10 has been included in the current year's budget.

3. The application of the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle, having been received in this office only on the 21st May 1916 I could not address Government earlier. I shall take due notice of the delay on her part.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

B. K. Srinivasan

For Director of Public Instruction.

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Retention of the two temporary teachers employed in the Govt girls' school at Pollachi.

From the D. P. I. No 4107 dated the 5th June 1916.

Register No. 1966 Edl.

In their order No 661 Edl, dated the 3rd June 1914, the Govt sanctioned the employment for one year from 1st June 1914 of two additional teachers ^(for the infant standard) on Rs 10 each in the Govt girls' school at Pollachi. The ^{then} strength of the school was 171. The staff employed in the school including the temporary teachers referred to above consisted of ~~one~~ a head teacher on Rs 20 plus a personal allowance of Rs 4, and ~~one~~ six assistants, viz, one on Rs 14, one on Rs 12 and four on Rs 10 each - viz S. G. No 661 Edl, dated the 3rd June 1914. In 1915 the strength of the school rose to 180. The Govt sanctioned the retention of the above temporary teachers for another year, but they refused to raise the pay of one of the teachers to Rs as they considered that Rs 10 was quite sufficient for a teacher of an infant standard in an elementary school - vide G. G. cr. 538, held, dated the 18th May 1915.

2. The strength of the school has now risen to 190. The D. P. D's proposal to retain the ^(two) temporary teachers for another year may, it is submitted, be approved. As regards ~~the~~ ^{his} proposal to raise the pay of one of these teachers to Rs 25, it is submitted that the question is not one of raising the pay of one of the teachers of the infant standard, but it is one of abolishing the post of one of the teachers and of appointing ~~to occupy the post of one of the teachers on a permanent and qualified headmistress on Rs 25 from the 1st March 1917~~ ^{and of appointing a competent} ~~person to occupy the place~~. Submitted that this proposal seems unobjectionable, as the staff will then consist of one headmistress on Rs 25 ^(temporary) and six assistants, viz, one on Rs 20, one on Rs 14, one on Rs 12 and three on Rs 10 each ^(and as the school is a higher standard school, it is not a primary school). A similar establishment was employed in this school in 1910 - vide G. G. cr. 209, held, dated the 18th April 1910.

3. A draft order sanctioning the D. P. D's proposals is submitted which may issue with the concurrence of the Financial department.

Since there is no budget provision, the proposed increase from the 1st March 1917 - separate of the letter.

Financial Dept.

An order regarding this must be justified on the ground that it is of urgent and imperative necessity. In the present case no such necessity exists - the D.T. does not propose the increase in the pay of one teacher till March 1917 when it will be possible to make budget provision. But in next year's budget we shall probably have to exclude something that is not of imperative necessity.

Moreover this is already a head teacher on Rs 24 (Rs 20 + a p. a. of Rs 4) and if he is not fit the obvious course seems to be to replace him by some one who is competent.

Mr. H. Murphy, Financial agrees to the continuance of the his temporary teacher
on Rs 10 if must ask Educ
kindly to reconsider its decision as regards raising the pay of one of them to Rs 25 with app'd from the 1st March 1917.

The views of the Financial department in regard to the employment of a headmistress on Rs 25 may, it is submitted, ^{(although it will involve an extra expenditure} ^{of only Rs 180 per annum.)}
be concurred in. It is, however, proposed to ask the D. P. I to retract his proposal in this regard early in December 1916.
(with a view to make budget provision) if he considers it necessary to do so. By that time the D. P. I ^{will} ~~may~~ be in a position to gauge the necessity and urgency for the employment of a headmistress on Rs 25
and the Govt. ~~may~~ ^{will} be in a ^{(better} position to see whether the extra expenditure involved ^(is justifiable.) ~~is justifiable.~~ ~~is justifiable.~~ A revised draft order is submitted which may perhaps be sent to trial for perusal before issue.

The Govt ~~sanctioned~~ ^{sanctioned} for a sanction the retention, for a further period of one year from the 1st June 1916, of the ~~two~~ temporary teachers on Rs 10 each per mensem sanctioned in G. O. No 661 Coll, dated the 3rd June 1914, for the Govt girls' school at Pollachi. The Govt are ~~presently~~ unable to accept the proposal of the S.P. I. to raise the pay of one of these teachers to Rs 25 per mensem. If the present headmistress of the school is not competent, she should he replaced by a ~~competent~~ ^(and qualified) woman. The D. P. I may, if necessary, renew his proposal in this regard early in December 1916.
