C.No.2554. From the Government of Bengal, No.2420 Com. dated the 12th July 1916.

Subject-

Regarding the sale of dyes to
Messrs R.V.Ranga Aiyer Muthurama Aiyer &
Co., Madura.

c/ The auction sale of dyes referred to in the Bengal Government's telegram is apparently a sale held in Bengal of a portion of the dye cargoes of the s.s."Barenfels" (not evidently confined to Bengal alone as in Madras). The Bengal Government apparently want to be assured of the genuineness of the Collector's certificate. We have no other officer but the -- Collector to speak on this point. Dr.Marsden is not likely to know more than the Collector.

One of the conditions at the Madras auction was that the buyer should not resell. Apparently no such condition was imposed in Bengal, and we are not obviously asked to say whether the company will need all the dyes it has bought for its own use and not for resale. A draft telegram is placed below for approval
