From (Name) The Hon. Mr. J.H. Stone, M.A., C.I.E., F.R.H.S., (Designation) DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, EDUCATIONAL Department.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 310, Educational, dated 22nd March 1916 sanctioning the reorganization of the Madras Law College, I have the honour to submit herewith copies of the Resolutions of the Law College Council passed at its meetings held on the 11th and 24th July 1916 together with a copy of the Principal's confidential letter dated 28th July 1916 submitting recommendations for giving effect to the scheme.

In the circumstances explained by the Principal, I consider that the employment of the full sanctioned scale of staff is immediately necessary.

2. As regards the recommendations of the Council for filling up the posts, I beg to state that I have personally discussed the matter with the Principal and am satisfied that their recommendations are sound. I think, however, that the appointments should in the case of persons not already on the staff of the Law College be at first probationary for, say, a term or a college year at the most and it should be clearly understood that even satisfactory discharge of the duties of one of these appointments for three years will not necessarily entail reappointment.

3 Of the new men selected for Assistant Professorships I have ascertained (1) that M.R.Ry. S. Duraiswami Ayyar, M.A., B.L., is a distinguished graduate who has had teaching experience and has a type of practice which has given him such experience as will be useful for teaching the Codes, (2) that M.R.Ry. T.S. Narayana Ayyar, M.A., B.L., although a junior is undoubtedly a man of marked ability chosen particularly because of his distinction in Sanskrit, a scholarly knowledge of which is essential for lecturing on Hindu Law, (3) that M.R.Ry. K.P. Lakshmana Rao, B.A., B.L., is a distinguished graduate selected largely for his personal qualities which have very favourably impressed the Judges, and (4) that Mir Zynuddin Sahib Bahadur is selected as it is considered very desirable to have a specialist in Muhammadan Law.

4 Speaking generally the staff has been put together with a view to meeting all possible requirements. Some applicants of good qualifications have had to be left out because the Council think it necessary to have a good proportion of Vakils upon it as their special knowledge of Indian Law makes their presence on the staff quite essential. If it had not been for this consideration persons like M.R.Ry. K. Kotireddi who has taken Honours in Law in the London University and is a graduate in Law of the Oxford University, would have been recommended. The Council will, I understand, keep such men in view for future employment in the college.

Enrolled in 1908

5. In view of the special reasons urged by the Principal and the College Council their recommendation for the grant of a personal allowance on behalf of M.R.Ry. T. Rajagopala ---- Achariyar Avargal seems deserving of favourable consideration.

6. As the college has already commenced work, I request the favour of very early orders on these proposals on receipt of which I shall submit the usual recommendation roll, if necessary.

7. The applications referred to in the last paragraph of the Principal's letter are herewith submitted and those received from the other candidates will be submitted ----- separately.

I have the honour to be, in the Chief Justice Chambers.

Business To consider G.O.No.310 Educational dated the 22nd March 1916, and the Proceedings of the Director of Public Instruction Dis. No. 2604, dated the 19th April 1916.

Resolved 1. That the full staff sanctioned under G.O. No. 224 Edl.. dated the 15th March 1913 is necessary during the present College year.

II (a) That the present Junior Professor and Assistant Professors continue as members of the ^{reorganized} ~~recognized~~ staff.

(b) That Mr. Paul Appaswami be appointed to one of the two Professorships under the ^{new} ~~old~~ scheme as from the 8th July 1916 and that Mr. T. Rajagopalachariyar and Mr. C. Kunhi Raman be appointed to Assistant Professorships as from the same date.

c. That in view of Mr. T. Rajagopalachariyar's special claims and services he should be given a personal allowance of Rs.100 per mensem in addition to his salary.

III. That applications for the additional places on the staff be invited by means of notices in the "Madras Mail" and "Hindu" and on the notice boards of the Bar Association the Attorney's Association and the Vakil's Association.

(Seven days' notice was considered sufficient in view of the very large number of applications already received.

IV That the meeting adjourn to 5 P.M. on the 24th July 1916

and

Proceedings of the Law College Council at adjourned meeting held on the 24th July, 1916 at 5 P.M. in the Chief Justice's Chambers.

S i r,

I have the honour to enclose copy of Proceedings of the Law College Council at a meeting held on the 11th July 1916 and an adjourned meeting held on the 24th July 1916. My 4-5 ante

2. With regard to Resolution No. 1, the necessity for the full staff is very strongly felt for the following among other reasons:- (1) The staff sanctioned by G.O.No. 224, Edl., dated the 15th March 1913 contemplated only three sections being trained (namely an F.L., a B.L. and a Pleadershp section) whereas there are now four sections (Viz F.L., S.L., B.L., and Pleadershp) (2) Small classes in which individual attention can be given to students and discussion of leading cases (which constitutes an essential part of the best legal education) can take place, only become possible when the full staff is appointed. For many years past the College professors have been forced to lecture to classes of 200 or 300 students at a time, and work of the nature indicated above has had to be almost entirely neglected. (3) Each Professor to be really efficient should specialize and confine himself as far as possible to one subject or one or two allied subjects. Hitherto we have been forced to call upon each member of our staff to lecture on a number of distinct subjects, a method which results almost inevitably in his being master of none. I enclose a rough draft scheme of work for 9 professors:

3. On Resolution No. II, the Council felt the necessity necessity for a continuity which might be lost if we had an entirely new staff and also felt that the present members had gained valuable experience and are doing the work very efficiently.

4. With reference to Mr. T. Rajagopala Achariyar I would strongly urge his claims for special treatment. The Council felt that with so excellent a candidate for the vacant Professorship as Mr. Madhavan Nair they were unable to suggest Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar's promotion to that post but they only passed him over with the greatest regret and resolved to ask Government's careful consideration of the possibility of giving him some special terms. Rule No. 10 provides for the appointment of 'special' lecturers and under this rule which has been taken over unmodified from the old rules I understand lecturers were occasionally appointed on 'special' rates of pay. If Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar's claim is recognized I do not think there is the least danger of its forming a precedent, as under the present rules a case like his cannot recur, it being quite clear that every member of the staff (except the Principal) is free to practice. When however Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar was originally appointed in 1902 the advertisement definitely stated that the Assistant Professors were not to engage in practice. Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar consequently gave up altogether the idea of practice and though some years later the restriction appears to have been removed it was then too late for Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar to benefit thereby. A Sanskrit Scholar of very high attainments, he has qualified himself by his 14 years of service in the College to be placed on a footing different from that of the Assistant Professors most of whom have been his own pupils. I enclose his application for appointment as Professor.

The special rate may be less than the sanctioned rate.

been made is the result of the most careful deliberation.

Private.

My dear Sir P. S. Sivaswami Aiyar,

I wanted to see you in connection with the subject-matter of this letter before you left for totacamund. I went to your bungalow once, but came away without seeing you as there was then a visitor. I was not able to make any further attempt in that direction owing to my absence in the professional or professional work. Under the new scheme for the Law College to come into force on the reopening of the College in July two professors on Rs 500 each are to be appointed. I am an applicant for one of the professorships and I have submitted an application to the Principal of the Law College. One of the professorships is likely to be given to a Vakil, and amongst the Vakils who may care for the place I am likely to be the sincerest in standing. I would not have cared for the place if my hands were so full of professional work as not to leave me any time to attend to the College work. As you have known me and my work for a very long time, I have taken the liberty of writing to you to accord to me such help as you can in the matter, if you think I deserve the place. I shall only say before I conclude that if I am appointed, I shall do my best to deserve the confidence, and cherish your help with gratitude. Begging to be excused for the liberty I have taken,

With best regards,

Yours Sincerely,

Robert Brewster

Barrister at law
Madras.

Sir,

As I understand that a professor on a salary of Rs 500 is to be appointed shortly in the Madras Law College, I request you to be good enough to consider this, as my application for the post.

I am a graduate in Arts of the Madras University. I was called to the Bar from the Middle Temple in 1903 and I was enrolled as an advocate of the Madras High Court in January 1904.

For a short time - during the period Mr. E. E. Adger was on leave in 1909, - I officiated as the vice-principal and junior professor of the Madras Law College.

I may also bring to your notice that last year I was one of the Judges of the 2nd appellate Court at Pudukottai, appointed by the Durbar to hear and dispose of 2nd appeals pending in that Court.

I am at present holding the appointment of the "Assistant Law Reporter" and am also practising as an advocate in the Madras High Court.

I have the honour to remain

To

The Principal,
Law College, Madras.

Sir,

I beg to submit this my application for one of the Assistant Professorships at the Madras Law College.

I beg to state that I have passed the M. A. Degree Examination of the Madras University in the First Class with Philosophy for my subject.

As regards Law Examinations, I was third in the list of successful candidates in the F. L. Examination, while in the B. L. Degree Examination, I stood high in Second Class. In the Apprentices' Examination held by the Madras High Court, I topped the list.

I was enrolled as a Vakil of the Madras High Court in the year 1908 and since then have been practising as a Vakil at Madras principally on the Original Side of the Madras High Court and in other Original Civil Courts of Madras.

In conclusion, I desire to add that for a period of about three years I was a Lecturer in Logic and Ethics for the B. A. classes at Pachayappah's College and gained considerable experience in teaching.

I beg to remain,

Dear Mr. Davies,

Mr. S. Duraiswami

anjari, M.A. B.L., High Court Vakil, is an applicant for one of the assistant professor's places. I am sure you know him very well.
He was my apprentice years ago; and his character and manners are excellent. He is of 8 years' standing.
He was an assistant professor at Pachaiyappa's for 3 years before he joined

Sir,

I beg to apply for the post of an Assistant Professor of the Law College, Madras under the revised constitution of the College sanctioned by the order of Government--No. 310, Educational, dated the 22nd March 1916.

I have been practising in the High Court of Madras since my enrolment in August 1913 as a Vakil thereof. I passed the B. L. Degree Examination in 1912 from the Law College, Madras and served my term of apprenticeship with Mr. T. R. Rama Chandra Aiyar, a leading Vakil of the High Court.

I took my B.A. and M.A. Degrees from the Presidency College, Madras. In the B. A. Degree Examination (Dec. 1907) I was placed in the First Class in English and was awarded "The Bysani Madhava Chetti Gold Medal" for proficiency in Sanskrit. I appeared for the M.A. Degree Examination in January 1910 and was placed in the Second Class in English (Branch VI) and obtained the "Rao Bahadoor M.A. Singaracharya Prize" for having taken the first place among the successful candidates of the year.

I enclose copies of testimonials regarding my character and capacity from

T. S. Narayana Iyer M. A., had already made a name for himself in the B. A., and M. A., Degree Examinations of the Madras University when he joined the Law College in 1910: and I may say that during the two years he spent there he lived up to his reputation. I had not only the advantage of perusing his answer papers: but remember questioning him frequently in class, and always succeeding in eliciting a clear and suggestive answer from him when others had failed. He gave evidence of a quick, searching, subtle kind of intelligence which is particularly suited to the study and practice of the Law: and I have no doubt he has made full use of the opportunities he must have had for the exercise of his faculties since he joined the Bar. He was always well ahead of the class in preparing his work: and it was clear that he had not only read carefully but thought deeply and patiently on the subjects in which he was interested. There can be no question of his intellectual capacity and fitness for work demanding any degree of ability or effort.

I rather hoped at one time that he would take up the profession of Education, as I had no doubt that in addition to his knowledge of English language and literature he possessed the other qualifications required in a College Lecturer if he is to be a success. Sir,

I, Mir Zynuddin L.L.B. (London), Barrister-at-Law, of the Hon'ble Society of Lincoln's Inn and of University College, London, son of Khan Sahib Mir Riazuddin Sahib Bahadur, Assistant Commissioner of Salt and Abkari, Madras, beg to submit my application for the Assistant Professorship of the Law College, Madras.

I passed the First Examination in Arts (F.A.) of the Madras University and was studying in the B.A. Class when I proceeded to England to prosecute my studies.

I was admitted into Lincoln's Inn in 1909, kept all my terms and attended the lectures at the Inns of Court and was called to the Bar in June 1912.

I entered the University College, London, and had a complete three years' course in Law for the LL.B. degree of the London University. I attended the whole series of lectures in connection therewith by the eminent professors of University College, King's College and the School of London Economics such as Dr. Sir John Macdonell, Professor Morgan, Dr. Murison, Professor Wright, Professor Hurst, Dean Faculty of Laws University College, &c. In addition to this I had a special legal training under Dr. Hibbert Dean Faculty of Laws King's College. Having secured high places in the Intermediate Examinations, I acquired the degree of the Bachelor of Laws (L.L.B.) of the London University and can with confidence say that I possess a very sound legal knowledge under such an academical training.

May I further mention that I belong to a very ancient and respectable Mahomedan family of Southern India whose Members have for the past four or five generations done distinguished services to the British Government both in the Army and the Civil Service. My great grandfather Syed Nooruddin Khan Bahadur Shuja Jung was honoured with a jaghir, Noubart, and many marks of distinction for his meritorious services in the Army. My grandfather Mir Anseruddin Sahib Bahadur served the Government most honestly and faithfully and was Presidency Magistrate, Madras. Some of my relations are still occupying high and responsible positions under the Madras Government.

In consideration of my high family connection, of my education in England and of my special legal training at the London University, I trust that my application will be favorably considered for which I shall be thankful.

My record of work both here and in England as will be seen from some of my testimonials herein appended will I presume be a sufficient guarantee for my earnest endeavours to give entire satisfaction in my work.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Mir Anseruddin

Mr Mir Zynuddin has been a student of this College since the beginning of 1907 when he joined the first college class. He passed the F.A. examination in 1908, and has studied for one term in the Third College Class. He leaves now to undergo an Arts course in Ediburgh. I have pleasure in recommending him to the favourable notice of those who will have charge of him there. He is a muhamadan of good family, and bears the highest personal character. I believe he will show himself thoroughly worthy of any trouble that may be taken on his behalf.

I have much pleasure in stating that Mr. Mir Zynuddin, of Lincoln's Inn, attended lectures at the Inns of Court for eight terms; I thus had opportunities of judging of his character. His conduct throughout the time which he has spent here has been excellent. He was called to the Bar at Lincoln's Inn last June; and I believe him to be a fit and proper person to be enrolled as a member of the Bar of the High Court of Madras.

following for your favourable Consideration In Connection with the revised scheme of the Law College which is just now sanctioned, I humbly request that I may be promoted to one of the new professorships on Rupees five hundred

I have been in the College as assistant professor for the last 14 years, since the 1902, and have been satisfactorily doing principal lecturing work in very important subjects like Hindu Law, jurisprudence Civil Procedure, Estates Land Act, etc.

When appointed in 1902, lawyer (High Court Vakil) of 6 years standing, having been enrolled in 1896.

I am a master of Arts of the Madras University in Mathematics, possess a good knowledge of Sanskrit, and have contributed articles to the Madras Law Journal, and other papers, on subjects connected with Hindu Law. I have been an examiner to the University in Law, for a few years past.

In consideration of my long and faith-

Assistant Professor,
Law College, M a d r a s.

Sir,

I beg to submit for the favourable consideration of the College Council my qualifications for promotion to a professorship under the new scheme recently sanctioned.

I am a Master of Arts in Mathematics. I was enrolled as a High Court vakil in March 1896. I was appointed - Assistant Professor in the Law College in February 1902. I have been for the last several years in charge of important subjects like Hindu Law, Jurisprudence and Civil Procedure, and have lectured in them to the satisfaction of the Principal and the higher authorities. The results of public examinations in the subjects taught by me have always been satisfactory.

Before my appointment in 1902, I was practising as a Vakil and had a fair amount of practice. Under the scheme that then came into existence I was appointed with the - understanding that practice in courts will not be permitted. (Vide Fort St. George Gazette, dated 17th December 1901). Some years later, liberty was given to practice. But the system of day instruction which has been continuing and the fact that my work has usually been between 11 A.M. and 4 P.M.

have not permitted me to avail myself of the liberty fully. Under the new scheme, I shall be able to be in touch with the Courts as far as it lies in my power. I may add that the subjects in which I have been lecturing have always required up-to-date knowledge of current decisions of all the High Courts in the Reports, and I have been closely following them with a view to make myself most useful to students.

I have a good knowledge of Sanskrit, being a prize-man in that subject and have studied in the original Sanskrit many of the Hindu Law Texts. I have also contributed - articles to the Madras Law Journal, Madras Weekly Notes, and other Journals on subjects chiefly of Hindu Law.

I request that the Council will be pleased to recommend me for appointment under the new scheme as Professor in consideration of my qualifications mentioned above and my long and faithful service in the College, as Assistant Professor.

I have the honour to remain,

Mr. Paul Appaswami is a permanent Assistant Professor of the Law college on Rs.250 whose appointment is liable to be determined on a term's notice on either side - c.f. paragraph 5 of office note on page 38 of G.O.603 Edl., dated the 27th June 1913.

X
only two-thirds is admissible to
Mr. Appaswami.

He was appointed to act as Junior Professor (salary - (Rs.650-25-900) of the college in June 1911 - Please see G.O.193 Edl., dated the 20th June 1911, and the notes connected with it for the circumstances under which Mr. Appaswami was appointed to act in this post. The appointment was made sub protem with effect from the 10th October 1911 - G.O.129 Edl., dated the 13th February 1912. When the time for his confirmation came, certain proposals for the reorganization of the college were under consideration and among these was the abolition of this post of Junior Professor. These proposals were finally sanctioned in G.O.224 Edl., dated the 15th March 1913. Mr. Appaswami who was, under the scheme as then determined upon, only fit to hold the post of Assistant Professor, was recommended only for that post by the Law College Council - pages

5 & 6 of G.O.603 Edl., dated the 27th June 1913. He then put in a petition requesting ~~Mr. Appaswami~~ to be appointed as a Professor on Rs.500 per mensem - pages 10 to 14 of G.O.603 Ed1., dated the 27th June 1913. The nominations for the posts of professors and assistant professors under the new scheme were not, however, taken into consideration, as His Excellency the Governor directed that the question of the reorganization of the college should be reconsidered and that meanwhile the old arrangements should continue - pages 45 of

G.O.603 Ed1., dated the 27th June 1913. The reorganization scheme has just been finally sanctioned in

(G)

G.O.310 Ed1., dated the 22nd March 1916, and Mr. Appaswami's claims for confirmation will, in the usual course, be considered ~~and~~ on receipt of proposals from the Director of Public Instruction.

2. It may not be quite accurate to say that Mr. Appaswami is not allowed the full pay of the appointment. He is allowed the full pay admissible to a native of India who occupies a post usually filled ~~by~~ by nomination in England; and the post of Junior Professor being of the latter description, Mr. Appaswami gets two-thirds of the sanctioned pay of the post. Please see the papers with G.O.565 Ed1., dated the 27th June 1912.

(H)

3. Under ~~the~~ rule 11 of the old college rules rules the junior Professor, like the Principal, is only allowed consulting or chamber practice. Mr. Odgers, the last permanent incumbent of this post, was specially permitted to practice in the courts in the Madras City. No special application from Mr. Appaswami for any such concession had been received by Government. Under the new scheme, however, all the professors and the assistant professors are allowed to practice - please see rule 1 on page 3 of G.O. 310 Edl., dated the College staff is to consist of a Principal on Rs 1000-25-1250, two professors on Rs 500 each and six assistant professors

50

3. The College Council, the Principal and the S.P.S. recommend the appointment of the undermentioned persons as professors and assistant professors of the College:-

(1) Professors-

Name.	Year of Appointment	Reason for Recommendation	Remarks
1. Mr. Paul Apperwami Pillai M.A., Bar-at-Law	1904.	Junior Professor since 1911 Assistant Professor	From 8.7.16
2. " C. Madhavan Nair B.A., Bar-at-Law	1904	Superior qualifications	Once acted as Vice-Principal & Junior Professor

(2) Assistant Professors-

2. " S. Durairam Ayyar M.A. B.L.	1902	Distinguished graduate.

6. Mr. Zeynuddin Bar-at-Law L.L.B. (London)	1912	Specialist in Muhammadan Law.

4. Mr. T. Rajagopala Achariyar has presented a memorial praying that he may be appointed to one of the new professorships of the college council. The Principal and the S.P.S. unanimously recommend the grant to Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar of a personal allowance of Rs 100 p.m. in addition to the salary of Rs 250 p.m. admissible to an assistant professor. It is for consideration whether this extra expense should be incurred by Govt. for procure the services of Mr. C. Madhavan Nair as ^{or} ~~professor~~ professor ^{in the college}. In his letter of the 8th June 1914 printed on pages 728 of G.O. No. 1424 Ed, of the 14th December 1915 the Principal wrote eulogistically of the services of Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar and expressed the opinion that it would be very hard if he were superceded by an outsider. It is for consideration whether the appointment of Mr. C. Madhavan Nair as a professor in the college may be approved and if so, whether Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar should be granted a personal allowance of Rs 100 p.m. as recommended by the college Council and the Principal. If both Messrs.

Paul Appaswami Pillai and C. Madhavan Nair are appointed professors, the vakils will be practically excluded from ^{the} two higher appointments in the college, including the Principal themselves with them be three Bannisters.

5. Of the four persons newly recommended for appointment as assistant professors to the College, only one Mr. S. Duraiswami Aiyar is of seven years' standing at the bar. Mr. T. S. Narayana ~~Swami~~ Aiyar and Mr. ~~Swami~~ are quite juniors having been enrolled in 1913 and 1912, respectively. In this connection attention is solicited to para-3 of No. 224 Edl, dt. 15-3-13, ~~para 2 of G.O.~~ to India No. 1425 Edl, dt. 14-12-15 and para-1 of G.O. 310 Edl, dt. 22-3-16.

6. The S.P.D. considers that, in the case of persons not already on the staff of the Law College, the appointments should at first be on probation for a term or a college year at the most and that it should be clearly understood that even satisfactory discharge of their duties for three years will not necessarily entail re-appointment.

The first of the proposals appears to be sound and the Govt. may direct that the new appointments should be on probation for a period of one year. As regards the second proposal attention is solicited to para. 3 of G.O. No. 224 Sd. dt. 15-3-13 in which it was stated that the officers once appointed would be eligible for re-appointment if their work was satisfactory. In the face of this pronouncement, it is for consideration whether the proposal of the S.P.D. ^{on the form in which it is made} should be accepted. The promise of reappointment is an inducement for efficient work and the Director's proposal to withdraw that promise does not appear to be sound. The Govt. have a free hand in deciding what is meant by "satisfactory discharge of the duties" and have full discretion in reappointing a man or in refusing to reappoint him. It appears desirable to adhere to the pronouncement made in para. 3 of G.O. No. 224 Sd. dt. 15-3-13.

Submitted that no pronouncement be made anyway. The position is fairly well understood by all concerned.

Secretary

Of the two nominees for the two Professorships, viz: Messrs Paul Appaswami & C. Madhavan Nair, there seems to be no objection to the appointment of Mr. Appaswami.

2. As regards the other nomination, the following observations seem called for:—

(i) that it will entail the supersession of the claims of Mr. J. Rajagopalachariyar, the Senior Assistant Professor,

(a) who ^{is reported to} has been successfully lecturing in the College for the past fourteen years,

(b) of whose capacities successive Principals (Messrs Nelson, Swaminathan & Davies)

have held high opinions &

(c) who is passed over by the Council in its ^{present} recommendations "with the greatest regret" in view of Mr. Madhavan Nair's candidature.

(ii) that the grant of personal allowance to him, which is strongly recommended by the Council, the Principal & the D.P.D., as a substitute for the promotion, is not likely to find ready acceptance especially ^{in the} Finance.

(iii) that without either the promotion or the allowance, his case will be a very hard one especially as his competence for the professorship has been recognized before & is not disputed at present;

(iv) that none of the two nominees, who

The Council say that Mr. Nair is the better man were called to the bar in England, can adequately handle the important subject of Hindu Law as one, who studied the subject as part of a regular course in India.

In these circumstances, a better arrangement would seem to be the appointment of Mr. Rajapalachanigal for the other Professorship, which will avoid the grant of any personal allowance.

3 In regard to the nominations for Assistant Professorships, it is submitted that the case of Mr. K. Yegnanarayana Adiga, who has been a Special Lecturer in the College since 1912, does not appear to have been considered. He was enrolled as a vakil in 1906 & thus a longer standing than any ~~one~~ of the new nominees. When his nomination was proposed in 1912, it was stated that he was one of the best men among the juniors. The College Council of 1913, which submitted proposals for filling up the appointments created under the reorganization, included his name for one of the Assistt Professorships, and Mr. D.P. saw no objection to the appointt. He has now been in the College for four years; and unless his work had been bad, it may be desirable to consider his case. There is, however, no definite opinion

The Law College Council has considered the whole matter carefully and I think that the D.P.I has acted rightly in accepting the Council's recommendations generally. I am for sanctioning the D.P.I's proposals except in one respect; and that is the grant of a personal allowance of Rs 100 per m to Mr. T. N. Rajagopalakrishnan. I see no adequate grounds for it. His officer has to do a great deal of work, and I think that he would have been recommended for

of the Professorship but for the fact that a better man in Mr. C.

applied. I do not see how under these circumstances the fact that Mr. T. Raghavachari Chinn is passed over can warrant the fact to him of a personal advance.

The Home (Edl) Secy. considers that the proposal to grant a personal allowance of Rs 100 p. m. to M.R.Ry. T. Rajagopala Achariyar is not justified in the circumstances of the case. The rules relating to the grant of personal allowances to officers of Govt. on page 5 of S.O. 600 Fint. & 27.9.12, seem applicable only to full-time officers of Govt. and as Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar is only a part time officer, it is submitted that it does not appear that his case is covered by those rules. A gain with reference to portion H of the Law College Principal's letter on page 7 CF., it is submitted that in 1902 when Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar was appointed as Asst. Professor, he was granted the full maximum salary of Rs 250 then fixed for the post in consideration of the fact that he was then to be a full-time officer - vide S.O. 59 Edl. 24-2-02. That post has now been abolished. The circumstances which tend to Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar's not getting any pecuniary benefit on the introduction of the ^{present} Law College reorganization are also not such as will justify the grant of a personal allowance. Submitted that in the circumstances, this dept. may agree with the view 25th August 1916.

My dear Rajagopalachari,

Please see the enclosed letter from
Mr. Paul Appaswami, Ag. Vice-Principal of the Law
College, asking for confirmation. Only recently Professors and Assistant Professors were appointed to the College but I do not remember anything in the file about the Vice-Principal. Is there any proposal to confirm Mr. Paul Appaswami?

Yours sincerely,

Letting

Madras 22.8.16.

To The Private Secretary
To His Excellency the Governor.

Sir, I waited by appointment, now some three years ago, upon His Excellency at friendly conversation with ^{my} ~~the~~ confirmation as Vice Principal, Law College, Madras. He was pleased to give me a full hearing and asked me to wait till the scheme of reorganisation was complete, and appointments were made under it. The question of the confirmation of the existing members of the staff and the appointment of fresh men is now before His Excellency:
and I shall feel deeply grateful to you if you will kindly put him in mind of the following points in my favour.

I was appointed as a permanent member of the staff 7 years ago and have acted, sub pro tem, for 5 years, as Vice Principal. I ask for confirmation.

The Law College Council, which makes nominations, has recommended that I should continue as one of the Professors under the new scheme. The members of the Council, as well as the Principal, can testify to my devotion to the College and to the hard and faithful work I have done.

I took my B.A. degree in Madras before I left England and obtained a double first class, standing first in the Presidency in Philosophy. I then proceeded to Cambridge where I took Honours in History and Law, &c. against obtaining a double first class, and standing first in the list on both occasions. I need not dwell on any other distinctions in detail, but I may mention that the Chancellor was pleased to nominate me a Fellow of the Madras University recently.

For the last five years, during my tenure as Professor & Vice Principal, I have had to sacrifice my legal practice, under instructions from the Director of Public Instruction, - a sacrifice which was not insisted on in the case of my predecessor in office, Mr Odgers. This has meant a serious loss to me, both in money and in the matter of building up my practice and I have only submitted to it with a view to my confirmation.

Though I have not the privilege of knowing you in person I have ventured to trouble you in accordance with His Excellency's wishes & trust you will be good enough to put my case before His Excellency in kind, so that no injustice may be done to ~~me~~⁵. I need not repeat that I shall be deeply grateful for any kindness you may shew in the matter

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedient servant

Paul Appasamy
