15th June 1916

Dear Sir,

We have pleasure in sending herewith copies of the first two volumes of the new social history for schools, which we have just published, by Stanley Leathes, C.B. M.A., who is the first Civil Service Commissioner here. The books are intended for use in schools by children of from twelve to sixteen years, and are meant to accompany a usual history course. They have been enthusiastically received here and are already in use in a number of the large English Public Schools, as well as in the State aided Municipal Schools. If the books seem likely to be suitable for educational requirements in India we should be much obliged if you would kindly bring them to the notice of the persons concerned.

We are, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Wm. Heinemann

To
The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department.
