READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from P. L. MOORE, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 27th July 1916.

No.—R.C. 1078-And.

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to authorize the Inspector-General of Police to sanction the exemption from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special Tests Notification, of clerks of not less than six years' service in police offices who are qualified under article 1 of the Public Service Notification to enable them to appear for the criminal judicial test, lower grade.

2. Owing to the inadequate supply of qualified candidates for the post of accountants and managers, a number of applications have of late had to be made to Government for the grant of permission to unqualified clerks to appear for the criminal lower test. It is likely that further applications from Superintendents may be expected, as most of the clerks in district police offices are matriculates or holders of secondary school leaving certificates and cannot appear for the test without exemption. The proposal herein made will save some correspondence with Government. I may add that the Inspector-General at present has the power to permit unqualified sub-inspectors to appear for the criminal lower test and would request that a similar power in respect of unqualified clerks might well be delegated to him.

Order—No. 926, Home (Education), dated 31st August 1916.

The Inspector-General of Police will be authorized to sanction the exemption from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special Tests Notification, of clerks in police offices of not less than six years' service who are qualified under article 1 of the Public Service Notification and who are desirous of appearing for the criminal judicial test, lower grade, subject to the condition that the Inspector-General shall not permit a candidate to appear for the test more than three times.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 926, HOME (EDUCATION),
DATED THE 31st AUGUST 1916.

[SUBJECT.—Delegation to the Inspector-General of Police of the power of exempting unqualified clerks to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade.]

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated the 27th July 1916, R.O. No. 1078-Aud.

The Inspector-General of Police is already competent to permit (i) sub-inspectors and head constables of the city and district police, who possess the general educational qualification specified in article 1 of the Public Service Notification, to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, and (ii) sub-inspectors and inspectors of police, who have not the requisite educational qualification, to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, higher grade, for not more than three times.

The question whether the Inspector-General may also be empowered to permit sub-inspectors who have not got any general educational qualification to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, is separately under consideration in the Judicial section.

2. The present request of the Inspector-General is that he may be empowered to sanction the exemption from the general educational qualifications of clerks of not less than six years' service in police offices who are qualified under article 1 of the Public Service Notification to enable them to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade. Submitted that the proposal is unobjectionable. The Government have to a certain extent already accepted the Inspector-General's proposition that a good supply of qualified men should be available to choose from, to fill up the posts of managers and accountants in district police offices—vide Inspector-General's letter in G.O. No. 202, Educational, dated the 23rd February 1916, and have accordingly

P.R.—15-8-16. allowed a good number of clerks in police offices to appear for the test (cf. G.O. No.

192, Educational, dated the 23rd February 1916). The delegation, if made, will obviously save a number of references to Government. The Judicial section may be consulted as to whether there is any objection to the proposed delegation.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when corrected and should be returned to the Secretariat when finally struck-off.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
