The Secretary to Government

Hon'ble Sir,

(E) With reference to G.O. No. 255 Financial, dated the 8th May 1916 declaring certain Local allowances remunerative in respect of gazetted and non-gazetted officers, I hope it is not inopportune to draw your attention to the fact that while the maximum allowance that can be paid to me as Secretary of the Student's Advisory Committee is Rs 200 per mensem, I am only now drawing on that account Rs 100 per mensem and this in spite of the fact that in other parts of India similar officers are generally drawing the largest amount available, while I believe the work of this Committee is not surpassed in quantity by that of any other Provincial Committee.

(Y) This matter was put before you by a letter of the President dated 10th December 1913, and the allowance was then raised from Rs 60 per mensem to Rs 100 per mensem. (See G.O. 271. Educational, dated 9th March 1914.)

I hope I may without offence request your consideration to the question whether I should not now be granted the full allowance available.

I have the honour to be Hon'ble Sir

Your most obedient servant

Arthur Davies

C.No.2784 Edl. - From the Secretary to the Madras Students' Advisory Committee, No.242., dated the 24th July 1916.

Subject:- Increase in the allowance to Secretary, Madras
Students' Advisory Committee.

j (9)
In his despatch No.142 Public, dated the 14th October 1910, (~~wa~~ page 2 of G.O.No.760 Edl. dated the 21st December 1910), the Secretary of State sanctioned the delegation to Local Governments of the power to grant allowances subject to a maximum of Rs.200 a month, but irrespective of the general limitation upon their powers of sanction contained in the C.S.R., to officers appointed to be Secretaries to Provincial Committees for supplying information to Indian students.
The allowance to the Secretary to the Madras Students' Advisory Committee was originally fixed at Rs.60 per mensem, and on the recommendation of the President of the Committee it was subsequently raised to Rs.100 ~~wa~~ after a careful consideration of the allowances paid to ^{The} Secretaries of other provincial committees - Vide notes and orders in G.O.No.271 Edl., dated the 9th March 1914. This allowance has been included in the list of local allowances which have been treated as remunerative - vide G.O.No.255 Financial, dated the 8th May 1916.

2. The Secretary, Students' Advisory Committee, ~~wa~~ requests that the allowance now paid to him may be raised to Rs.200 per mensem, the maximum amount that this Government is competent to sanction. As reasons for his proposal he urges that in other parts of India

Similar

generally similar officers are ~~now~~ drawing the largest amount available, and that the work of this committee is not surpassed in quantity by that of any other committee. It may however be observed ^{that} the work of the Secretary has decreased to an appreciable extent during 1914-15, ~~what~~ what it was in 1912-13. (Vide table I on page 4 of G.O.No.1219 Edl., dated the 13th November 1915). It does not therefore seem that there is any case for an increase in the allowance. Before forwarding the file to Financial for remarks, the D.P.I. who is ex-officio ~~was~~ Vice-President of the Committee may be consulted u.o.

AS 8/8/16 JH 8/8/16 Submitted that the question was fully considered in 1914. The allowances paid in other Provinces having been also taken into account. ^{new} No grounds have now been adduced for reopening the question.

I see no reason for the minutes. That was the D.P.I. think please?
