NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 928, HOME (EDUCATION),
DATED THE 31st AUGUST 1916.

[SUBJECT.—Alterations in the Public Service Notification consequent on the delegation of enlarged powers of exemption to the Inspector-General of Registration.]

From the Commissioner for Government Examinations, No. 2806, dated the 22nd August 1916.

The draft notification submitted by the Commissioner for Government Examinations seems apparently to be inadequate since under paragraph 1 of G.O. No. 836, Educational, dated the 2nd August 1916, the proviso “that bonâ fide efforts have been made without success to obtain passed candidates” is meant to hold good only in respect of future entrants. It is not contemplated that the Inspector-General's hands should be fettered by the proviso in giving permanent promotions up to Rs. 25 to men already in the department. In this view the draft would appear to require some amendment. It may however be held that the Inspector-General's power of exemption in respect of men in the service is only an executive authorization and need not appear in a notification which is mainly meant for the public. If so the draft is submitted for approval.
