Memo. No. 4124-1 Edl., dated 27th November 1915.

2. Any balance of the grant remaining unutilized at the end of any year may be spent on any non-recurring object, preferably equipment, that is found necessary on the advice of the Inspector of schools. If the Inspector is of opinion that the balance cannot be profitably spent on any non-recurring object, it will remain to the credit of the local body and will make good to it its excess expenditure in following years.
