5th September 1916.

My dear Diwan Bahadur,

The Rajah of Pittapur writes regretting his inability to attend the Conference on Female Education.

The number of officers of the department in the list of members is rather small, including Yates and myself I think only 5. I therefore suggest that in his place Miss Patterson, Acting Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle, should be appointed. This would have the additional advantage that she is an Anglo-Indian and therefore in a position to give useful information as to the conditions of employment in educational work of members of her community, a matter that is sure to come up.
