Abstract.

Telugu Shorthand Examination.

Informing the Inspector-General of Police that, in view of the fact that provision for the conduct of examinations in Telugu shorthand has been made in the scheme of Government technical examinations, a special examination in Telugu shorthand outside that scheme is unnecessary, and sanctioning subject to certain conditions, the grant of 15 special shorthand allowances of Rs.10 each per mensem to such police officers below the rank of Inspector as qualify in the advanced test in Telugu shorthand.

ENCLOSURES.

No.

From the Inspector-General of Police, R.C.No.419/Aud, dated the 17th April 1916.

Endorsement of the Accountant-General, No.T.M.24-2101, dated the 5th May 1916.

Forwarded.

2. There is no audit objection to the recommendations of the Inspector-General of Police being accepted by Government.

3. The Inspector-General of Police has since intimated that the probable expenditure in the current year on account of the shorthand allowance to Sub Inspectors and prizes to the candidates for the shorthand examination will amount to about Rs.525/-. The necessary reappropriation of funds should be sanctioned to this extent.

ORDER:-

In view of the fact that provision has been made for the conduct of annual examinations in Telugu shorthand in the scheme of Government technical examinations, the Government do not consider that a special examination such as the one proposed by the Inspector-General of Police conducted by a special committee and restricted to Government servants, is needed.

As an inducement to Government servants to appear for the Government technical examinations in Telugu shorthand, the Government are pleased to sanction the award in order of merit, as tested at the next examinations, of three prizes of Rs.40, Rs.30 and Rs.25, and three prizes of Rs.15 each to the best among the successful candidates who are Government servants. The prizes will be available forward only to such candidates as have either passed at least the Intermediate test in English shorthand or as qualify themselves in English shorthand up to a minimum of 100 words a minute at a special examination which will be held for Government servants on a day prior to the Telugu shorthand examinations.

2. Orders will issue in the Home Department (Education) for the conduct of the next Telugu shorthand examinations in October 1916, instead of in April 1917 in the ordinary course, and for the conduct of the special examination in English shorthand referred to in paragraph 1 above.

3. The Government also sanction the grant of special shorthand allowances, which will be treated as 'duty allowances' of Rs.10/- each per mensem to police officers below the rank of Inspector who may be required to report the proceedings of public meetings and who have passed the Advanced test in Telugu shorthand. The number of such allowances will, for the present, be fixed at 15, and the continuance of the allowance in the case of each holder thereof will be contingent on the maintenance of his efficiency, which should be tested by half-yearly departmental examinations.

4. The Inspector-General of Police should forward a reappropriation statement for the expenditure to be incurred during the current year on account of the shorthand allowances sanctioned in paragraph 3 above.

From the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, R.C.No.419, dated the 17th April 1916.

With reference to paragraph 4 of G.O.No.1018 Public, dated the 16th August 1912, I have the honour to report that the Telugu shorthand manual has been issued and to recommend that arrangements may be made to hold a public examination in October next, and that a committee may be appointed to prepare a scheme and conduct the examination.

2. The examination may be open to all persons in Government service, including Sub Inspectors of Police, who have qualified in English shorthand up to a minimum of 100 words per minute.

3. I suggest that prizes similar to those sanctioned in respect of the examination in Tamil shorthand in paragraph 2 of G.O.No.303 Public, dated the 12th April 1910, be offered to successful candidates in Telugu shorthand examination.

4. I also recommend that 15 allowances at Rs.10/- each may be sanctioned for qualified Sub Inspectors of Police. A similar allowance is now being granted in the case of Tamil shorthand - vide G.O.No.498 Public, dated the 18th April 1913. The grant of the allowance will, of course, be subject to the condition that the recipient maintains his efficiency which should be tested by half-yearly examinations.

5. I request that necessary provision of funds may be made in the Budget Estimate for 1916-17 under the head "20 C Police District Executive Force - Police force general - Shorthand allowance to Sub Inspectors.
