My dear Diwan Bahadur,

Please see the enclosed letter. As Miss Macphail is away some one might very well be substituted for her. Perhaps on the whole Mr. Leith would be best. I don't advocate enlarging the Conference by the other appointments suggested by Mr. Meston.

Yours sincerely,

L. Stone

My dear Stone,

When the constitution of the Conference on Female Education appeared in the newspapers, Pittendrigh, Leith (who is now Secretary of the Missionary Educational Council) and I thought there were one or two matters which we should like to place before you. I saw Grieve on Saturday, and asked him whether we ought to write to you officially. He said that if I wrote to you informally it would do as well.

What we wish to lay before you is a twofold request--

- (1) that Miss Grover's name be substituted for that of Miss Macphail;
- (2) that the names of Maclean and Leith be added to the list of members of the Conference.

Our reasons for making these requests are:-

- (1) that, though the bulk of elementary girls' education is in the hands of missions, so far as we can judge from the published list, no missionary (man or woman) who has been appointed to the Conference has personal experience of elementary education.
- (2) that Miss Macphail is now in Scotland on a year's leave.
- (3) that Miss Grover is well acquainted with elementary and vernacular girls' schools, both in Madras and outside it; Maclean has extensive knowledge of both secondary and elementary education; and Leith is Secretary of the Missionary Educational Council and has had a good deal to do with the management of girls' schools.

I trust that you may approve the suggestions which we have made, and that you may see your way to recommend Government to accept them. If a formal letter is necessary, I can get it sent on as soon as I hear from you.

I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

M. Meatr.

Submitted that there appears to be no objection to the proposal to appoint the Revd. Mr. Leith a member of the Conference in place of Miss Marshall, who is now reported to be in Scotland on a year's leave.

2 It may however be mentioned in this connection that a telegram has been received from the Catholic Association of South America praying for the appointment of the Revd. Mother Mary as a member (additional) of the conference; The Secretary has noted that no action is necessary thereon and the file has just gone in circulation to H.E. the Governor.
