x " In connection with the work done by acting Inspector x x Padhi, I cannot speak in terms of too great praise. To begin with the sole credit of the successful issue of the Dharakonda dacoity with murder case must go to him. This was the very first case committed by the gang which can be said to have been dealt with by the Police with any degree of success or promptitude and it is no exaggeration to say that had it not been for the brilliant work of this young officer in unearthing the hiding place of the gang after the Dharakonda case and discovering the names of their supernumeraries and the plans they had made for raids, in particular for the burning of Addathigala Police station, there would have been a serious "fituri" in the Agency which would have required the presence of troops for its suppression. During the investigation of this case, N.K. Padhi had to suffer great hardships. Often he would have to walk all day, and then sit up most of the night doing office work, while his infinite patience and tact often secured, valuable information where none seemed forthcoming. No reward roll was sent up for this officer for his work on the Dharakonda case, ^{since} in asking him to accompany me on special duty, I told him that if he worked for me as he had done in the Dharakonda case I should be able to make a very good representation of his work at the end of the special duty. N.K. Padhi stayed with me throughout the whole period of the operations against the gang from 2-1-1916 till I left the agency on 17-6-1916 and he is still on special duty to round up the remaining members of the gang. Throughout he was my right hand man. In spite of exceptional hard work under most trying conditions he remained patient and cheerful and by his example encouraged subordinates to work. This officer displayed throughout devotion to duty, zeal and interest and owing to the trying conditions prevailing and the is thoroughly reliable and trustworthy and in strongly recommending that in recognition of his services he be promoted to the permanent rank of Inspector, I feel sure that the department will be the gainer thereby.

1916, from F.A.Dene, Esquire, Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Northern Range, to the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, through the District Magistrates of Godavari and Vizagapatam.

The case of the latter (Acting Inspector N.K. Padhi) is difficult as he is not qualified for the appointment of Circle Inspector but ~~as~~ he has shown himself to be admirably suited for work in an Agency and as a special case I recommend that he be promoted to Probationary Inspector for employment in charge of an Agency Circle.
