No. 843

Station Madras, Dated the 21st December 1916

From (Name) A. H. Loughurst, Esq.,

(Designation) Superintendent, Archaeological Survey,

Southern Circle,

To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras

Home (Education) Department, Madras.

Sir,

In continuation of this office letter No. 625, dated the 19th September 1916, I have the honour to submit herewith the advance Programme of Work for the quarter ending 31st March 1917.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. H. Loughurst
Superintendent.

31st March 1917.

---:---

1. During the month of January, I propose to make a survey of the historic Hill Fort at Udayagiri in the Nellore District which has not yet been inspected by this Department, with a view to preparing an illustrated article on this interesting Monument. There are also some ruined temples in this neighbourhood which await inspection.
2. In February, I propose to revisit Gajjalakonda in the Kurnool District and complete the excavation work there already sanctioned by Government before these interesting tombs are removed by the villagers to make room for cultivation. There is ample time for the work now that the really important conservation works in this Presidency are finished and no longer require my personal supervision.
3. During March, I shall have to visit the Seven Pagodas and Hampi Ruins to see what progress has been made with the repairs before the close of the official year, so that the same may be noted in my Annual Report. Chezarla in the Guntur District contains a very interesting temple and numerous antiquities that require photographing, and deserve to be described and illustrated in the form of a Special report on the subject. There are also a number of other antiquities in this neighbourhood which appear to be well worth inspecting. I expect this work will occupy my time until the end of April.
4. The above proposals, represent the chief sites awaiting inspection and the most important works requiring my attention but any tour programme which I may submit is always subject to alteration on account of unforeseen inspections and Treasure Trove cases cropping up which require immediate attention. Moreover, when visiting a temple or an ancient site for the first time, I do not know how long an inspection may last, It may occupy a couple of days or a whole month according to the nature of the work to be undertaken on the spot. So it is impossible for me to always adhere strictly to the programme submitted to Government.

SUBJECT. Advance programme

work for the quarter ending the 31st March 1917

In his advance programme of work for the quarter ending the 31st December 1916, Mr. Longhurst stated that he had finished the preparation of the "Guide-Book to Hampi Ruins" with the exception of a few detailed descriptions of certain important buildings which had to be done on the spot and that the revised list of ancient monuments had likewise been completed, the first proof thereof having been received from the press - vide pages 123 of G.O. No. 197 Hones - (Misc.), dt. the 4th October 1916.

2. In the present programme no mention has been made of the further progress in the above two publications. As these have been pending with the Archaeological
