READ—the following papers:—

I

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. J. H. STONE, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.L.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department (through the Accountant-General, Madras).

Dated—Madras, the 5th December 1916.

No.—Ref. on C. 5358.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the employment, with effect from the 1st March 1917, of a clerk on Rs. 15-1-20 per mensem in the Government Training School for Mistresses, Mangalore, and of an assistant mistress on Rs. 40-2-50 per mensem in the model school attached to the above institution, in the circumstances explained below.

2. In the proposals for the establishment of the school sanctioned in G.O. No. 679, Educational, dated 27th September 1911, provision for a clerk was not made consistently with the practice prevalent in training schools for masters. The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle, reports that the clerical work of the school, which is at present distributed among the members of the staff of the training department, has of late increased so much as to necessitate their staying at school long after 5 p.m. almost daily and that in addition to the maintenance of so many as fourteen registers they have to prepare the several departmental returns, pay, contingent, travelling allowance and stipend and scholarship bills, to look after the library and to assist the headmistress in the correspondence and other sundry items of work. It is reported that the number of papers received and despatched during the current year up to July last was 300 and 365 respectively and that it is no longer possible for the members of the staff to attend to the clerical work without detriment to their legitimate duties, and for these reasons, Miss Patterson strongly urges the employment of a clerk on Rs. 15-1-20. I consider her proposal to be very reasonable, and having regard to the facts that the main duty of a headmistress consists in supervision, organization and teaching and that training schools of similar status, viz., the Government training schools for mistresses, Karantattangudi and Calicut, command the services of a clerk each, I beg to request that sanction may be accorded to the employment permanently of a clerk on Rs. 15-1-20 in the Government Training School for Mistresses, Mangalore.

3. As regards the proposal to strengthen the staff of the school by the appointment of an additional mistress, Miss Patterson reports that both the standard and strength of the model school have improved during the years 1915 and 1916, the highest class being now the VII, and that the present staff of six teachers on Rs. 30-2-40, Rs. 25-1-30, and Rs. 20-1-25 and the remaining three on Rs. 15-1-20 each is unable to cope with the work of the eight classes containing 194 pupils a shown on the margin. Moreover, the headmistress and her assistants in the training section have been obliged to work in the model school also and early relief is necessary if as seems desirable their work is to be confined, as far as possible, to the training section. She, therefore, suggests the employment of an additional teacher on Rs. 50-2-60 for the VI and VII standards. I am convinced that the present standard and strength of the model school justify the need for strengthening the staff, but consider that it will suffice if the salary of the proposed additional teacher is fixed for the present at Rs. 40-2-50 per mensem so as to fit in with the existing scale of pay.

4. Should the proposal for an additional assistant meet with the approval of Government, it is proposed to keep in abeyance for the present, as a partial set-off against the additional expenditure, the post of junior industrial mistress on Rs. 20 per mensem sanctioned in G.O. No. 72, Educational, dated 30th January 1912, which has been vacant for some time past and the necessity for which will arise only when the school comes to be provided with sufficient accommodation to admit of the opening of a regular branch of industrial work to which outsiders might be admitted. Until then, the additional assistant's post proposed may, I submit, remain on a temporary footing.

5. I further request that provision for the charge may be entered in the Civil Budget Estimates for the next official year now under the consideration of Government.

2. The entries in the column "present scale" have been compared with those in the audit registers of this office and are correct.

3. There is no audit objection to the proposals being sanctioned by Government. Attention is however respectfully invited to Government confidential memorandum No. 8349-1, Financial, dated the 28th December 1915.

4. If the proposals are sanctioned, it may please be specifically stated whether grain compensation allowance is to be allowed to the clerk proposed.

Order—No. 95, Home (Education), dated 23rd January 1917.

The Government sanction the permanent employment of a clerk on Rs. 15-1-20 per mensem (inclusive of grain compensation allowance) and the temporary entertainment for a period of one year of an assistant mistress on Rs. 20-1-25 per mensem (inclusive of grain compensation allowance) in the Government Training School for Mistresses, Mangalore, with effect from the 1st March 1917.

2. This sanction has been registered as No. 10 of 1917-18.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 95, HOME (EDUCATION), DATED THE 23RD JANUARY 1917

[SUBJECT.—Additional establishment for the Government training school for mistresses, Mangalore.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated the 5th December 1916, R.C. No. 5358.

Endorsement of the Accountant-General, dated the 16th December 1916,
No. S.C. 2/17414.

The Director of Public Instruction proposes to entertain with effect from the 1st March 1917 in the Government training school for mistresses, Mangalore—

- (i) A permanent clerk on Rs. 15—1—20 per mensem.
- (ii) A temporary teacher on Rs. 40—2—50 per mensem.

2. As regards (i), please see page 1 of notes to G.O. No. 905, dated the 1st October 1913, from which it will appear that the Government training school for mistresses, Mangalore, was the only one that was left without a clerk. Recently an additional clerk on Rs. 20 per mensem was sanctioned for the Government secondary and training school for mistresses, Triplicane—vide G.O. No. 1098, Home (Education), dated the 19th October 1916. In paragraph 2 of his letter the Director has given full reasons for the employment of a clerk and his proposal may be accepted. The scale of pay proposed for the clerk, viz., Rs. 15—1—20, is the same as that paid to the clerks—vide page 1 of notes with G.O. No. 905, Educational, dated the 1st October 1913—of the Government training schools for mistresses at Calicut, Rajahmundry, Guntūr, and Karuntattangudi and may be accepted. The clerk may, as usual, be declared ineligible for grain compensation allowance.

3. As regards the entertainment of an additional assistant mistress on
Rs. 40—2—50, the Director of Public Instruction has given full reasons in paragraph 3 of his letter and his proposal in this respect may also be accepted. The pay of Rs. 40—2—50, proposed by the Director of Public Instruction for the additional assistant is also reasonable and may be approved—cf., the scale of pay given to the assistants in the Government training schools for mistresses at Egmore, Coimbatore and Calicut—pages 4, 6 and 7 of G.O. No. 679, Educational, dated the 27th September 1911.

4. As regards the Director of Public Instruction's proposal in paragraph 4 of his letter, the post of junior industrial mistress on Rs. 20 may continue to remain vacant until sufficient accommodation is provided.

5. Before passing orders the file may be sent to the Financial Department for remarks. If that department accepts the Director of Public Instruction's proposals, it will have to make the necessary provision in the budget estimate for 1917—18.

In regard to the pay, however, it is submitted that it does not appear imperatively necessary to fix it at Rs. 40—2—50. If the pay of the new temporary post is fixed at Rs. 40—2—50 the result ordinarily will be that the existing mistress on Rs. 30—2—40 will be promoted thereto and there will be a chain of promotions lower down, the net result being the bringing in of an additional mistress on Rs. 15—1—20.
